JUBILEE 2025 – PILGRIMS OF HOPE

TRINITY SUNDAY

A story is told of the great theologian St. Augustine who was attempting to write a treatise on the Holy Trinity. As he walked along the Mediterranean Sea, he saw a young boy holding a shovel and small pail. As he looked on, the boy dug a hole in the sand, and then went to the water's edge. Grabbing his pail, he filled it to the brim and then proceeded to carry it to the newly dug hole, pouring the water from his bucket into it. Then he went back to the seashore, filled another bucket, and once more dumped it into the hole. This went on and on, as Augustine watched inquisitively. Finally, approaching the boy, Augustine asked, "What are you doing?" He responded energetically, "I am going to pour the water from the sea into this hole." Augustine replied, "That's impossible, you can never do that!" To which the boy said, "And you will never be able to explain the Trinity!" With that, the boy vanished.

The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity stands, as the Catechism states, as "the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God Himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them (CCC#234).

In his Angelus address of May 30, 2021, Pope Francis said, "This God is the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Three persons, but God is one! The Father is God; the Son is God; the Spirit is God. But they are not three gods: it is one God in three Persons. It is a mystery that Jesus Christ revealed to us: the Holy Trinity....They are Persons. There is the Father to whom I pray with the Our Father; there is the Son, who gave me redemption, justification; there is the Holy Spirit who abides in us and inhabits the Church. And this speaks to our heart because we find it encompassed in that expression of Saint John which summarizes all of Revelation: "God is love" (1 Jn 4:8-16). The Father is love; the Son is love; the Holy Spirit is love. And inasmuch as he is love, God, while being one alone, is not solitude but communion, among the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Because love is essentially a gift of self, and in its original and infinite reality it is the Father who gives himself by generating his Son, who in turn gives himself to the Father, and their mutual love is the Holy Spirit, the bond of their unity. It is not easy to understand, but we can live this mystery, all of us, we can live it a great deal...."

"In the message of the Gospel and in every form of Christian mission, one cannot overlook this unity among us to which Jesus calls, following the unity of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: one cannot overlook this unity. The beauty of the Gospel asks to be lived — unity — and witnessed in the harmony among us, who are so diverse! And this unity, I dare say, is essential to Christians: it is not an attitude, a manner of speaking, no; it is essential, because it is the unity that arises from love, from the mercy of God, from the justification of Jesus Christ and from the presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts."

The mystery of the Trinity reminds all Christians that we are called to communion and unity. St. Therese said, as she pondered her calling at Carmel, "I have found my vocation, my vocation is to love." Love is at the center of the mystery of the Trinity, and thus is ours also.

Mental Health Awareness

Save the Date! The Diocese will be hosting a Regional Mental Health Ministry Retreat on September 20 at Camp Gray. This is open to anyone- those with mental health challenges, family, caregivers and anyone interested in mental health awareness.

Watch the bulletin for further details in the coming weeks.

In the meantime, see the Diocese of Madison's website for information and resources for individuals and parishes. Check it out at: madisondiocese.org/mentalhealth. ~Bill

Adult Faith Formation at St. Clement

This week we resume our gatherings on Tuesdays, concluding our study and reflection on "The Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary," with the final session titled, "The Triumph of the Immaculate Heart." This is a fitting conclusion to the Easter season and Pentecost Sunday. Jesus has triumphed over sin and death, winning for us life eternal. And His Blessed Mother, who is our Mother too, watches over us and intercedes for us in love. Looking ahead during the summer, we will be viewing and discussing the six-session study of "Keeping the Fire Alive" with Fr. Albert Haase, OFM, beginning on Tuesday, June 24. All are welcome!

We would like to thank 3M for its generous donation to our SS Andrew-Thomas School Fish Fry, as well as, the numerous donations over the past 10 years on behalf of retirees, Norma Kammerud & Tom Tobin!

Women invited to Renew Hope in Christ

Women are invited for a special spiritual day of renewal Saturday, June 28, at St. Francis Xavier Church, Cross Plains. Building upon the Catholic Church's 2025 Jubilee - Pilgrims of Hope, the Madison Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (MDCCW) chose "Renewing Hope in Christ" for the theme of its 70th annual gathering.

Dr. ValLimar Jansen, an internationally renowned singer, storyteller and songwriter, will engage the audience as she shares her gifts "to lift people up and ignite passion and purpose within them for Christ." Presenting in the morning and afternoon, she will share Scripture proclamation, reflection, music, costumed dramatic storytelling, prayer, and inspirational exhortation.

Bishop Donald J. Hying will be the main celebrant and homilist for the late morning Mass. Concelebrating with him will be Father Scott Jablonski, host pastor; Monsignor Duane Moellenberndt, MDCCW Spiritual Advisor; and other attending priests.

MDCCW President Carol Rogers, Fennimore, encourages women to register early. "Be prepared to hear a powerful speaker."

A fun event at the convention is a silent auction with items brought by members and parish councils. Proceeds from this auction help the MDCCW continue its work.

Registration for the event is $50 and due by June 20. The registration fee must accompany the registration form and is not refundable but is transferable. Registration can be done on-line, www.MDCCW.com or by mail to Coreen Marklein, 1307 Crawford St, Baraboo 53913.

For more information, go to the website or contact Convention Chair Kathy Roelke at 608-469-8698 or roelke@tds.net.
