JUBILEE 2025 – PILGRIMS OF HOPE LIVING IN HOPE

“My friends have been in the Church and have loved Jesus for a long time, but they realize their attention has been divided. They have been pulled into the gloom and doom of the media and the culture around them. They know the answer to hope is Jesus, but they have forgotten how to get there. Sometimes, we forget the hope of the Gospel.

St. Paul told the Romans in his letter to them that “suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope.” (5:3-4) I ponder this Scripture with my friends often. Sometimes when we look at the Word, the truth of God, we realize truths in our own lives—like perhaps we aren’t really suffering.

We have gotten caught up in the spirit of despondency, for that is the general malaise of the culture around us. My friends and I share past stories of illness, financial woes, heartbreak, and broken dreams. We remember when we were so low, we could do nothing but depend on God. And when we tell those stories, that verse from Romans comes to life. We remember how we became stronger through those situations and how we became people of character, who were people closer to God.

This is the paradox of the Gospel, that we must surrender to God to see the hope we seek.

St. Paul goes on to say that “hope does not disappoint us.” (Romans 5:5) When I was going through the lowest and most difficult of times, I held on to that verse.

Yet, there have been other times when I have been in the midst of suffering of my own doing. I forgot that I am not of this world. My values should not be the same. I created a prison of gloom and doom for myself and, as C.S. Lewis said, I locked the doors from the inside. I forgot that I belong to Christ, and my hope is in him.

And God does not leave us alone. St. Paul goes on to explain that the reason hope does not disappoint is, “because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.” (Romans 5:5) We are not alone, and we are loved by God. This is our hope. May we redirect our gaze upon Christ and not the things of this world.”

Adult Faith Formation at St. Clement

This week on Tuesday we will be concluding our study of "KEEPING THE FIRE ALIVE: Navigating Challenges in the Spiritual Life" with Fr. Albert Haase, OFM. This final session is titled, "The Agenda of the Ego." Let's face it, our ego often gets us into a whole lot of trouble. It may be in our relationships, and is certainly so in our relationship with God. As we all know, Jesus counters this with the need to "deny oneself" in order to be a disciple. Denying the ego is not easy, as we all know. We will gather in the parish office meeting room following the 8:15 AM Mass for Fr. Albert's presentation and our discussion.

Looking ahead, we will take a look at a few short films or studies as we finish out the month of August. More details next week!

Teacher Openings -

St. Clement has posted the second-grade teacher opening on the WECAN website, and encourage all of you to help spread the word as we look for our new teacher. Interested parties can be directed to our school Facebook page or given the following link to apply for the position:

<https://wecan.waspa.org/Vacancy/243141>

SS. Andrew-Thomas School is hiring a Music Teacher for the 2025/26 school year and is still looking for volunteers to mow for this summer. Even if they just want to sign up for a couple days, it would be much appreciated! Please contact Beth at 608-763-2120 or fleschb@ss-andrew-thomas.org.

MENTAL HEALTH RETREAT & NEWS

Mental Health
FIRST AID

St. Clement Parish will be hosting a Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) training workshop on Wednesday, August 13th. Did you know that 1 in 5 adults in the US lives with some form of mental illness; and that 130 persons die by suicide every day? MHFA training teaches you how to recognize, understand and respond to signs of mental health and substance abuse challenges among adults. In our rural area, we face so many mental health challenges and barriers. The more people who receive MHFA training, the more that we can reach out to others, and whose lives can be supported, changed and even saved. Be the Difference! Sign up for the Mental Health First Aid Training on August 13 from 9 AM to 5 PM. The training is free; to register email at apd@madisondiocese.org, or call 608-821-3050. Two hours of online pre-course work must be completed before the training. Register ASAP to get started on your pre-course work.

Registration is open for the Regional Mental Health Ministry Retreat on September 20th at Camp Gray. All are welcome to attend to learn more about the faith and mental health. It will begin at 9 AM and conclude around 4 PM. This is a free retreat with a free-will offering being taken up to help cover the cost of lunch. Register at: madisondiocese.org/mentalhealth.

GRIEF SHARE AT ST. CLEMENT

Grief after the death of a loved one can be overwhelming. One can experience a host of feelings, thoughts, behaviors and physical reactions that can make one question one's own mental wellbeing. There is the notion that, "time heals all wounds." This is untrue. Time can bring healing, but it's often what we do during this time that brings about relief and renewed hope in the grief journey. It has also been said that, "grief shared is grief diminished." All who have been involved in the GriefShare bereavement support group can attest to this truth. Through video, discussion and sharing, GriefShare is a 12-session process that brings people together who have experienced loss and who seek support that is confidential and who also seek healing in their unique journey.

Our next GriefShare support group will begin on August 21 from 6-8 PM at St. Clement Church. To register online, go to: www.griefshare.org and choose "find a group." You will see St. Clement listed. If our day/time are not the best for you, you will also see other offerings that may be a better fit. You can also contact Marcia Hampton at 608-732-8849 if you have questions or want to register.

Fr. Steve with three friends from Mount St. Mary's Seminary at the Consumed event.
