Sacristans Needed At St. Clement

Can you give just 20 minutes of your time to help our parish? Consider becoming a sacristan for our weekend Masses. You may wonder what that even means. Basically, it's helping the priest set-up for Mass. It's very simple. You would need to arrive about 20-25 minutes before Mass, and help set up the items that are needed for worship. Once you get the hang of it, it takes less than 10 minutes to do. At the end of Mass, it involves putting the Mass items away, and turning out the lights. Very simple! We'll provide on-the-job training too. Contact Bill Manthe at 723-4913 to volunteer or to get more info.

If you are interested in serving in this ministry, please contact Deacon Roger for more details.

The Lasting Gifts of Catholic Education

I remember my grandma telling me when our oldest son was born that our greatest responsibility was to raise him to be holy and ask for the grace to help him get to heaven. Sending our kids to Catholic schools was one of the things we did to set him on a path toward holiness. Catholic Schools Week is in January each year, so it's the perfect time to highlight some of the fruits of Catholic education in our journey to raise saints.

The center

Fostering a relationship with Jesus and learning to live the Gospel is at the center of everything! As students grow in their knowledge of Jesus, they learn to imitate his actions and put his teachings into practice. Amid conflict, discipline, relationships and challenges, students are taught to seek the love and truth of Jesus to form behavior, attitudes and actions.

Two big ones

Sacraments and prayer are intertwined in daily life. Attending Mass and receiving the Eucharist often is what many saints call the "recipe for heaven," and many Catholic school students have this opportunity each week. When sacraments are added to intentional prayer pauses throughout the day, students are able to form habits of prayerfulness and faithfulness that will serve them well throughout their lives.

The missing link

The messages our culture sends aren't always designed to help us grow in holiness, but a Catholic education steeped in the virtues is the antidote to those mixed messages. The Gospel lays out the virtues and Catholic classrooms bring them to life. Learning discussions, activities and accountability for living the virtues are the foundations for great discipleship. An early emphasis on honesty, humility, generosity, temperance and patience, to list a few, can change lives. Faith instead of fear, humility instead of boasting, and sharing and contentment instead of greed are Gospel-based swaps that make saints.

Community

Being a part of a Catholic school, students learn they're part of the Body of Christ. As St. Paul reminds us, every part of the Body has different gifts (see 1 Cor 12:4-11). Catholic school classrooms are beautiful places to celebrate all the ways God has created us differently and perfectly, and that despite our differences, we're all one in the Lord. Rooted in this sense of connectedness to all the other members of the Body, Catholic schools form students to help those who are suffering through outreach and service, drawing students into solidarity with the broader community beyond the walls of their school.

Lasting gifts

Words such as mercy, grace and forgiveness are spoken and practiced daily. Students are given the gift of truth – God's truth rooted in Scripture. Students are taught to find their value and their motivation by turning to their Creator, not the world. And the greatest gift of all, in a world that treasures busyness and independence, students in a Catholic school classroom are taught to pause with the Lord to be still and to know he invites us to be dependent on him for everything we need.

TEC comes to St. Clement in Lancaster, March 13-15, 2026

TEC (Together Encountering Christ) is an intergenerational movement of the Catholic Church designed to help meet the spiritual needs of Catholic Christians (though we certainly welcome those of other Christian faiths to experience a TEC weekend). Over 50,000 young people and adults in our country have experienced TEC in the last 5 years. The TEC weekend proclaims the central message of Christianity: The Paschal Mystery – death, resurrection, and mission. On the weekend, participants not only hear about death, resurrection, and mission in Christ, but also experience these mysteries. TEC is a weekend experience that is scriptural, gives a well-defined outline of doctrine, presents liturgy in attractive forms, and brings the Gospel message alive through the witness of a community of adults and young people centered around Christ.

Those who are freshmen in high school and older are invited to take part in a KAIROS (pronounced “kigh-roh”) TEC weekend. This Greek term means that now is the time of the Lord, now is the time of decision, now is the time of salvation. This name captures the uniqueness and reality of the TEC format. It has been a valuable experience for many, and we extend this invitation to you to “come and see.”
