Sacristans Needed At St. Clement

Can you give just 20 minutes of your time to help our parish? Consider becoming a sacristan for our weekend Masses. You may wonder what that even means. Basically, it's helping the priest set-up for Mass. It's very simple. You would need to arrive about 20-25 minutes before Mass, and help set up the items that are needed for worship. Once you get the hang of it, it takes less than 10 minutes to do. At the end of Mass, it involves putting the Mass items away, and turning out the lights. Very simple! We'll provide on-the-job training too. Contact Dcn. Roger at 723-4990, ext: 2 to volunteer or to get more info.

St. John's Parish is seeking a Sacristan and a musician (organist) to play for the Sunday 8:00 AM Masses. Please contact the parish office at 608-994-2526 for more information.

St. Clement's Altar Linen Ministry Volunteer Needed

We are seeking a volunteer to assist with our Altar Linen Ministry. This involves collecting altar linens once or twice a month, then washing, pressing, and folding them. Your help ensures the beauty and reverence of our Mass celebrations.

If you are interested in serving in this ministry, please contact Deacon Roger for more details.

First Friday Adoration at St. Clement

This Friday, February 6, is St. Clement's monthly First Friday Exposition and Adoration of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Adoration begins at 9 AM, and will continue throughout the day and night, concluding with Benediction at 9 AM on Saturday morning. This coming Monday is the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple. In that event, it was Simeon and Anna who recognized that this little baby was the promised Messiah. We can ask ourselves, "What do I see when I behold our Lord?" Simeon and Anna saw their Savior and Lord as they looked upon the baby Jesus. Mind you, they probably saw many babies pass by them that day, but the Holy Spirit moved them to see more deeply. Also, many others would have seen the baby Jesus and thought that he was just another ordinary child. As we gaze upon our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, we, like Simeon and Anna, behold the promised Messiah, Savior and Lord. Like them, may our time with Jesus fill us with joy and gratitude.

The sign-up sheet for volunteering an hour with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament can be found by the Fatima Chapel. Even if you cannot commit yourself for an hour, know that you are welcome anytime during our adoration time to spend time with Jesus whose love for you is infinite.

MENTAL HEALTH MINISTRY

The Mental Health Ministry Team for our pastorate of St. Joseph the Worker met this past week to discuss potential action items for the coming weeks and months. We had a very productive discussion, with many ideas being suggested. The presentation that we were planning for late February will now take place within a 4-part speaker series that will be offered on the first four Mondays of March: March 2, 9, 16 & 23, from 6:30 – 8:00 PM. The location is yet to be determined. The four topics are: The Impact of Mental Illness on Individuals and Families, An Evening with a Mental Health Professional, Spirituality and Mental Illness, and Mental Health Resources and Ministry. Please help spread the word! Remember if you or someone is struggling with mental health challenges, call the Suicide and Crisis Line at 988. For resources, see the diocesan mental health ministry website at: madisondiocese.org/mentalhealth.

FAMILY PROMISE UPDATES

Our next Family Promise host week at St. Clement begins on Sunday, February 15. With this date coming up quickly, you will find the volunteer sign-up sheets on a table in the back of St. Clement Church. We need to continue to expand our pool of volunteers, and so we invite anyone in our pastorate to join us as we bring hope, support and Christ-like compassion to families with kids experiencing homelessness. Contact Bill Manthe at 723-4913, email wgmanthe@yahoo.com, or Peg Jonas at 723-2051 for more information.

As mentioned previously, one of the families that was in the program was able to move into an apartment just before Christmas, but they need a few items to furnish their home. These include a working washer and dryer, dressers, lamps, and nightstands/end tables. If you are able to help with any of these items, contact Kim Jacobson, the Director of Family Promise of Grant County, at 723-3355. Also, she is looking for someone with a truck or trailer that can help move a couch to the family's apartment in Platteville. If you can assist with this, contact Kim at the above number. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Join us in Cassville for a study of the Acts of the Apostles on Wednesday mornings 9-10 in Saint Charles School. Open to anyone in the Pastorate.

Where? Saint Clement Office Meeting Room
WHO? All Pastorate members are invited.

Next week, a special edition of the Catholic Herald will arrive in your home, highlighting the Annual Catholic Appeal. This issue will showcase just a few of the many ways the Holy Spirit is at work in our diocese—from youth ministry and marriage enrichment to leadership training for parish leaders and outreach to the Hispanic community. Everything the Church does is for the glory of God and the good of our neighbor.

An envelope will be included if you wish to mail in a gift. If you prefer to give at Mass, envelopes will be available the weekend of February 14–15. Your support helps continue the Church's transformative mission in our local communities. Thank you for your generosity!

..... THE BEATITUDES .....

Matt. 5:3-12

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you (falsely) because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

TEC comes to St. Clement in Lancaster, March 13-15, 2026

TEC (Together Encountering Christ) is an intergenerational movement of the Catholic Church designed to help meet the spiritual needs of Catholic Christians (though we certainly welcome those of other Christian faiths to experience a TEC weekend). Over 50,000 young people and adults in our country have experienced TEC in the last 5 years. The TEC weekend proclaims the central message of Christianity: The Paschal Mystery – death, resurrection, and mission. On the weekend, participants not only hear about death, resurrection, and mission in Christ, but also experience these mysteries. TEC is a weekend experience that is scriptural, gives a well-defined outline of doctrine, presents liturgy in attractive forms, and brings the Gospel message alive through the witness of a community of adults and young people centered around Christ. Those who are freshmen in high school and older are invited to take part in a KAIROS (pronounced “kigh-rohs”) TEC weekend. This Greek term means that now is the time of the Lord, now is the time of decision, now is the time of salvation. This name captures the uniqueness and reality of the TEC format. It has been a valuable experience for many, and we extend this invitation to you to “come and see.”

GRIEF SHARE AT ST. CLEMENT

Grief after the death of a loved one can be overwhelming. One can experience a host of feelings, thoughts, behaviors and physical reactions that can make one question one's own mental wellbeing. There is the notion that, “time heals all wounds.” Time can bring healing, but it's often what we do during this time that brings about relief and renewed hope. It has also been said that, “grief shared is grief diminished.” Those who have been involved in the ecumenical GriefShare bereavement support group can attest to this. Through video, discussion and sharing, GriefShare is a 12-session process that brings people together who have experienced loss and who seek support and healing in their unique journey.

Our next GriefShare support group will begin on February 19 from 1-2:30 PM at St. Clement Church. To register online, go to: www.griefshare.org and choose “find a group.” You will see St. Clement listed. If our day/time are not the best for you, you will also see other offerings that may be a better fit. Contact Marcia Hampton at 608-732-8849 if you have questions or want to register.
