What is Alpha?

Mary, Queen of Peace will begin the new year with an invitation to all with questioning minds and open hearts to engage in a deeper encounter with Jesus through the parish's newly launched Alpha program. Nicole Johnson and Tiffany McGoey, co-directors of evangelization, engagement and adult formation at Mary, Queen of Peace, will work with a team of MQP parishioners to offer a series of 11 weekly sessions beginning Jan. 13, each focusing on a specific theme and emphasizing hospitality to invite all participants to inquire and share without fear of being judged.

"Alpha is all about evangelization," Nicole explains. "We take Jesus into our everyday life so that we can bring Jesus to others, inviting them to a meal so that we can share the light and love of Christ. Our invitation to Alpha is addressed to anyone who has questions. Whether you are a practicing Catholic or not, no matter how strong your faith may be, Alpha is the place for all of us to ask the difficult questions without being met with judgment – to be seen, and heard, and known, and loved."

On Tuesday evenings through mid-April, participants will come together at 6:30 pm in the MQP Parish Center to join their assigned host and table partners for a dinner served by hospitality members of the Alpha team. After dining and viewing the session's video, participants at each table will engage in conversation, allowing time to grow in faith, friendship, and meaningful discussion together. Each session will conclude around 8:30 pm.

Specific themes will explore Jesus's humanity and divinity, the gift of redemption, the importance of prayer and Bible study, and living in today's world as true disciples of Christ. Each session will conclude around 8:30 pm. Participants also will be invited to a special Saturday session on March 14 focusing on the gifts and power of the Holy Spirit in our daily lives.

Since its founding in 1977, the Alpha program has been conducted in more than 100 languages and has inspired exploration of Christianity by more than 35 million persons in 175 countries. Over the past decade, Alpha courses in the Catholic Church have reached more than 2.5 million participants, with 2,200 courses held in parishes across the United States in 2024.

"Our hope is that everyone who participates in Alpha will begin a new journey of discipleship, growing with Jesus and inviting others to encounter Him," Tiffany says.

Advance registration is required for participation in the winter/spring 2026 Alpha program at MQP. Registration is free and may be submitted online through Dec. 19 on the parish website at www.maryqueenofpeace.org/alpha. Teens of high school age interested in dialogue about faith with their peers are also invited to participate. Inquiries for further information may be made to Nicole and Tiffany at the parish office at 985-202-0265.

Got a light?

That is the theme of this year's #iGiveCatholic campaign, and it works well with today's solemnity – Christ the King – as well as the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday and holy season of Advent.

First, we must remember that Christ, our King, is the true light of the world. All light flows from Him, into us at Baptism, and we are called to ignite that light, share it and spread it. Because everyone deserves to shine.

As St. Paul tells the Colossians in today's second reading: "Let us give thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light. He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins" (Col 1:12-14).

St. Paul not only points out the meaning of the Lord as our light, but he also reminds us to give thanks to the Father for sharing that light with us. That brings us to the second point: This Thanksgiving, amid the turkey and dressing and family gatherings, let us remember to give thanks to the One who makes all things possible. Let us give thanks for becoming children of light. We can start by coming to Mass Thanksgiving morning – whether here at Mary, Queen of Peace at 9 am, or wherever you might be.

Finally, as we prepare for the holy season of Advent, which begins next weekend, we turn our attention to the light that is breaking into the world. With each candle on the Advent wreath, we await Emmanuel, God with us. And we remember that God has already come, He has already pitched His tent among us, he has already reminded us that, with Jesus, "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light" (Is 9:1).

Got a light? If you are a baptized Christian, you certainly do. You just need to ignite it, share it, and spread it far and wide. You can help make that happen by giving to our #iGiveCatholic campaign today. It will help MQP spread the light to those who wish to be Catholic (19 will be baptized at Easter); to young children in our school and parish (Catechesis of the Good Shepherd will be implemented next year); and to any of God's children who need help and hope (through our MQP Cares outreach).

Thank you for sharing your light. Because everyone deserves to shine.
