It stands to reason that Cliff and Linda Giffin first met decades ago at a Catholic Church.

The church was St. Catherine of Siena in Metairie and that meeting took place when they were both in college. From there, things clicked and many years of devotion and service to the Catholic faith followed.

The Giffins are now stalwarts in the army of volunteers that they say make Mary Queen of Peace such a special place.

They are involved in numerous ministries both at MQP and in the community, including Family Reach, Hospitality Sunday and Project Christmas. The cradle Catholics were also involved in helping build homes in Haiti.

Cliff serves as an usher, Communion minister and is a member of the Knights of Columbus, where he serves as treasurer. Linda is involved with the Catholic Daughters organization at MQP.

Additionally, Cliff and Linda are members of the local Kawanis Club, a volunteer organization focuses on improving the lives of children in the community. Cliff, a retired CPA, has been involved with the organization for 50 years.

The Giffins have two grown sons and three grandchildren. Aside from family, the two spend much of their time volunteering in the community.

"I grew up volunteering so it's kinda in my background," Linda said. "We feel like we have been very blessed and we feel the need to give back."

Growing up in Metairie, Cliff said his family was strong in its Catholic faith and was devoted to serving the church. His father was the head usher at St. Catherine.

"When we had family crawfish boils, we'd invite all the priests and they all came," Cliff said.

After marriage, the Giffins moved into St. Philip Neri. There, Cliff followed the example set by his father and became an usher, Communion minister and lector. He was the men's club president.

After moving to the north shore in the 1980s before MQP existed, they joined Our Lady of the Lake Parish. Their children attended school there and Linda's volunteer service at OLL led to a job in the school office.

In 2012, they became members of MQP and brought their volunteerism with them. They have received the Knights of Columbus Family of the Year Award and have also received accolades for their work with the Kiwanis Club. The Giffins said they are more than pleased to serve a church community like they found at MQP.

"We've heard it said before, but it's the welcoming atmosphere here at Mary, Queen of Peace," Linda said.

"It's above and beyond any other place we've ever been. There are so many opportunities here to give back, to volunteer."

Cliff said he's often asked by members of other churches what makes MQP a special place to worship, with some even asking in jest if it's the food served at events. But he has a simple explanation that doesn't involve cuisine.

"It's the people," Cliff said. "It's the people you meet, the people you work with."

The Kingdom Yet to Come

JEFF CAVINS and THOMAS SMITH

Unpack the Mysteries of Revelation

The Book of Revelation is one of the most fascinating and misunderstood books of the Bible, and this study with Jeff Cavins helps make sense of it through a Catholic lens. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come shows how Christ's kingdom, the Church, and the Mass are deeply connected to the heavenly story Revelation reveals. If you have ever wanted to understand Revelation without fear or confusion, this study is a great place to begin.

SCAN ME!

FROM THE PASTOR

This weekend, all parishes in the Archdiocese of New Orleans are celebrating Legacy Sunday. What is a Catholic Legacy? In short, your legacy is the spiritual and material impact you have on your family and community by how you live and what you leave behind. Let's explore that a little more!

Have you ever walked along the beach and looked back to see your footprints in the sand? It's sort of like looking into the past - you see the imprints you made along the way. What if you could leave footprints on the future? That's what it means to think about your legacy: How can you ensure that the values you hold dear today live on beyond your earthly life? With proper planning, you can leave imprints on the sands of the future.

What might those imprints look like? It depends on what you value most: Family, most likely, and places that shaped you and formed you and changed your life for the better - places like Mary, Queen of Peace, the parish that nurtures your faith, supports you in times of need, and gives you a sense of belonging and purpose. It is also, most likely, the place where you are leaving footprints behind through sharing your gifts, loving your neighbor, and worshipping our God.

Look back on your footprints at MQP and consider: What are your hopes and dreams for this beautiful family of faith in the next 10, 20, or 50 years? How can you help ensure a big, bright future where individuals and families can continue to grow in faith, be anchored in hope, and encounter the love and mercy of Jesus?

How can you leave your footprints on the future of Mary, Queen of Peace? Legacy giving, or planned giving, is just what you need. It is one of the best ways to ensure that the parish you love today remains strong for generations to come.

After caring for your family, consider extending your generosity to your parish family here at MQP. Your parish is where you encounter Christ in the sacraments and celebrate life's most meaningful moments. A legacy gift to MQP:

- Honors the Church's role in your family's life
- Reflects your gratitude for God's blessings

Jesus left footprints all the way from Capernaum to Jerusalem during his earthly life. But, on the night before he died, he left a legacy he commanded us to follow: "Love one another, then, as I have loved you" (Jn 13:34). Listen to Jesus and plan how you can leave a legacy of love, how you can leave your footprints on the heart of this place you call home.

Planned Giving Website

Recently, Mary, Queen of Peace launched a website on legacy giving or planned giving. It includes a multitude of resources for you to explore and help you determine what your legacy will be. By definition, a planned gift is any major gift, made in lifetime or at death as part of a donor's overall financial and/or estate planning. These include gifts of equity, life insurance, real estate, personal property, or cash.

For more information about legacy giving, or planned giving, please contact our Development Director, Lori Kilgore, at lkilgore@maryqueenofpeace.org or 985-202-0237.
