PARISH LIFE

JOURNEYS OF FAITH: MEET THE GREENS

My journey to becoming Catholic has been, in many ways, a journey home. For much of my life, my relationship with Jesus was marked by doubt and a certain distrust of organized religion. As a child, before my parents divorced, faith was simple. My grandmother read Bible verses every night and loved the Lord deeply. Her example left a mark, but in my late teens, from lack of understanding and absence of humility, I grew distant and even antagonistic toward God.

In my late twenties, I decided I no longer wanted to actively push against God's will—but I still wanted to follow Him on my own terms. In my early thirties, I married and was blessed with a son and, a year later, a daughter. While they were not being raised in the Church, I wanted Jesus in their lives — I just didn't know how to approach it. We said prayers at meals and bedtime, but He was not truly worshiped. Life's challenges drew me back to seeking God, still on my terms, until one day I sincerely asked Him what He wanted from me. I realized I wanted to truly listen and follow Him, even if I had questions along the way.

Those questions were different this time. They didn't come from a place of doubt in His wisdom, but from genuine curiosity and desire for truth. Trying to be a good father, I found that often the answers came as I answered my children's questions. When I explained to them why we should—or shouldn't—do something, I felt God speaking through me, guiding me, and teaching me through them.

I explored other faiths, including the Presbyterian Church, but I kept coming back to the Catholic Church. I knew it was the Church Jesus Himself established. One of my closest friends, Grady Clark, a cradle Catholic, was always patient with my questions about Scripture. In January 2023, he encouraged me to start Bible in a Year, and by October 2023, I began attending Mass regularly.

In January 2024, I spoke with Jodi Awbrey at Mary, Queen of Peace about formally joining the Church. At the time, I joined a class called Conversations with a Catholic, and Jodi guided me to more reading. With every book I read, I felt a growing peace, a deep sense that I was doing what I was meant to do.

Joining the OCI (Order of Christian Initiation) was another step in my journey, and I was blessed to have Nicole Johnson guiding me every step of the way. Her willingness to listen, answer any question, and offer patience and attention made the process not just educational but deeply supportive. Nicole's guidance helped me wrestle with doubts, understand the richness of the faith, and grow confident in my journey toward full communion.

When I joined OCI, my youngest daughter, Molly, then 10, was curious about what I was doing. After I explained it, she said she wanted to join as well. While I went through OCI learning the history and teachings of the Church, Molly participated in Christ in the Chaos, which complemented my journey beautifully. Where I had the facts and history, Molly had the love of Christ and His heart at the center.

Although I was not able to come into full communion last year, Molly was baptized and received her sacraments. This year, Erin, now 17, was baptized and received her sacraments, and I was welcomed into full communion with the Church. Experiencing this together as a family has been profound and deeply moving.

I love the Catholic faith — the depth, richness, and beauty of it. From my first experience at Mary, Queen of Peace Parish, I felt nothing but acceptance, love, and the presence of God. My journey has not always been easy, but it has been transformative, grounding my life and my family in something enduring. I am grateful that I can now walk this path with my daughters, Molly and Erin, guided by His truth and grace — and supported by mentors like Nicole, who helped make this journey possible.

A STATEMENT FROM MARY, QUEEN OF PEACE CATHOLIC CHURCH Men Matter Here!

Mary, Queen of Peace Parish is happy to announce that parishioner Ty Talamo is the newly appointed Director of Men's Ministry, taking over for John Tomba, who served faithfully but is stepping back from leadership to focus on family and work priorities.

The Director is the leader for ministries and programs designed especially for men at Mary, Queen of Peace. Ty will provide leadership, vision, and strategic planning for a core team that will work together to support the men of our parish family. Together, they will ensure that men come away from gatherings, events, and programs better equipped to serve the church, their families, and each other.

Fr. Cooper notes: "Ty is a man of integrity and deep faith. He possesses a collaborative nature and creative instinct that will serve the men of our parish by fostering true Christian masculinity and authentic fatherhood, in turn strengthening marriages, families, and our parish community. Ty is a devoted husband, father, and disciple of Christ. He is passionate about serving the men of Mary, Queen of Peace and sharing his unique gifts and talents to help foster life-changing encounters with Jesus. We welcome him as part of our ministry team as the new Director of Men's Ministry.

Ty was born in New Orleans, attended Jesuit High School and graduated from the University of Alabama. He has been married to his wife, Brandi, for 25 years. They have three children – Sophia, Andrew, and Stella – who all attended and graduated from Mary, Queen of Peace School. Ty has been involved in many ministries at MQP, including the first Welcome Team, TMIY and Anchored in Hope. He most recently has been a member of the Marriage Team and the Men's Ministry Core Team. Ty is a daily Mass attendee. He works in the insurance industry, enjoys family, friends, and playing a little golf, as well as spending time with his rescue dogs Allie, Lexie, and Betty.

"I am so excited to work with Fr. Cooper and the many men in the parish. My goal is to build on our men's ministry, bringing each man closer to God. My hope is that we can become better men, husbands and fathers. I ask you to pray for me and my family as we begin this journey together."

According to Fr. Cooper, "Men follow transformational leaders. They like to know that their leaders are certain of where they are going and are listening along the way. If a man does not believe in the leaders, he cannot follow the vision. When we hold up a leader as the standard for a mature Christian, we have to think: Do they look boring, tired and half dead? Or do they look vibrant, excited, and well-spoken (regardless of age)? Men should be able to look at the leaders at Mary, Queen of Peace and say, 'I want to be like that.'"

THE BIG IDEA: We have an unwritten "man code" that defines what it means to be a Christian man at Mary, Queen of Peace. We must create an environment that says: "Men matter here!"

FROM THE PASTOR

Home is where the heart is, the old saying goes. Whether you have been at Mary, Queen of Peace for almost four decades or merely four weeks, this is your faith home, and this is where your heart belongs. This is where you encounter Jesus deeply in sacrament, scripture, and service. A Catholic parish is a deeply personal place and space; even so, we at MQP are connected to the universal Church, the U.S. Church, and our own Archdiocese.

With that in mind, Archbishop Checchio invites each one of us to “take part in a very special moment in the life of our Archdiocese.” On June 14, he will consecrate the Archdiocese of New Orleans to the Sacred Heart of Jesus at the 11 a.m. Mass at St. Louis Cathedral. On that same weekend, parishes across the archdiocese will celebrate votive Masses of the Sacred Heart as we entrust our parishes, our lives, and our families to the tender love of Jesus’ own heart. Because home enthronement to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is a central aspect of this consecration, images of the Sacred Heart will be available for you to take home on that weekend.

Starting today, Divine Mercy Sunday, and every Sunday leading up to June 14, we will pray for special intentions to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. These can be found in this bulletin and on our website. In his letter announcing the consecration, the archbishop explains: “This act of consecration continues a long and beautiful tradition in our local Church. In 1874, Archbishop Napoleon Perché entrusted our Archdiocese to the Sacred Heart, placing our people under the loving care of Christ. Now, in our own time, we renew that same act of trust, asking the Lord to guide and strengthen us today. It is an opportune time for us to turn anew to our Lord for His protection and love.” The archdiocese joins the U.S. Bishops in consecrating the nation to the Sacred heart at their meeting in June as the United States marks its 250th anniversary.

In addition to joining in prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Mary, Queen of Peace will also unite with parishes across the archdiocese in a special holy hour on Thursday June 4, from 6 to 7 pm. More details will be coming, but please add it to your calendar as well as the novena to be prayed either over the next nine Sundays or the nine days before the consecration on June 14.

I have no doubt that our parish family at Mary, Queen of Peace will unite in this prayer to our Lord’s Sacred Heart. I echo our archbishop when he says: “My hope is that this consecration will mark the beginning of a deeper renewal in our Archdiocese — a renewal of faith, of family life, and of our mission to share the love of Christ with others. The Heart of Jesus burns with love for each of us, and He desires to draw us closer to Himself. I ask you, therefore, to enter into this time with open hearts, with trust, and with hope. Let us place ourselves confidently under the care of the Sacred Heart, knowing that He will guide us and strengthen us for whatever lies ahead.”

Pour down on my soul those graces which flow from Your love.

Let my heart never rest until it finds You,

STEWARDSHIP

WHAT IS YOUR LEGACY?

Each of us has been blessed by God and entrusted with many gifts from Him. We are all called to receive God's gifts gratefully, to cherish and tend these gifts, to share them in justice and love with others and to return them with increase to the Lord. Part of our responsibility as stewards of God's gifts includes what is sometimes referred to as our "final act of stewardship" – the creation of our estate plan.

Our estate plan is part of our legacy, enabling us to use those gifts that have been given to us to provide for our loved ones in the future. We also have the opportunity to give witness to the importance of our faith and express our gratitude to God by making a gift to the Church that strengthens our parish for future generations.

If you are interested in a legacy gift, please contact Lori Kilgore at lkilgore@maryqueenofpeace.org or Joe Galloway at the Catholic Community Foundation: jgalloway@ccfnola.org.

STEWARD OF THE MONTH

Andy Buckel is our April Steward of the Month. Andy shares his time and talent in many ways, from assisting at our Night in Bethlehem to helping out with a number of things on our QR Team to overseeing the livestream once a month. Thank you, Andy, for being part of our MQP family of faith!
