PARISH LIFE

Jesus says "I give you a new commandment: love one another....This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you show that you have love for one another, especially those suffering and poor, and that indeed you are the disciple of Jesus. Because of you, Saint Vincent de Paul, Mary Queen of Peace Conference was able to provide $6,300 for rent, food, utilities, car payment in support of nine (9) families during the period March 26, though April 22, 2026. Thank you for your generosity and compassion.

Novena in Preparation for Enthronement of the Home to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

To be prayed by households on Sundays beginning Divine Mercy or for the nine days prior to Enthronement

O my Jesus, You have said:

"Truly I say to you, ask and you will receive, seek and you will find, knock and it will be opened to you."
Behold I knock, I seek and ask for the grace of...

(state your personal intention)

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be...
Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You.

O my Jesus, You have said:

"Truly I say to you, if you ask anything of the Father in My name, He will give it to you."
Behold, in Your name, I ask the Father for the grace of...

(state your personal intention)

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be...
Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You.

O my Jesus, You have said:

"Truly I say to you, heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away."
Encouraged by Your infallible words I now ask for the grace of...

(state your personal intention)

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be...
Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus,
for Whom it is impossible not to have compassion on the afflicted,
have pity on us miserable sinners
and grant us the grace which we ask of You,
through the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary,
Your tender Mother and ours.
Amen.

Prayer in Preparation for the Consecration of the Archdiocese of New Orleans to the SACRED HEART OF JESUS

O Sacred Heart of Jesus,
fountain of eternal life,
Your Heart is a glowing furnace of Love.
You are my refuge and my sanctuary.

O my adorable and loving Saviour,
consume my heart with the burning fire
with which Yours is inflamed.

Pour down on my soul those graces which flow from Your love.

Let my heart never rest until it finds You,
who are its center, its love, and its happiness.

Let my heart be united with Yours.
Let my will be conformed to Yours in all things.

May Your Will be the rule of all my desires and actions. Amen.

God's Love, Mercy & Forgiveness

Pam H. was on a quest for God's answer for her perplexing personality traits and addictions. God's love, mercy and forgiveness transformed her mind and heart. Scripture memorization and practical guidelines played the primary role in this transformation decades ago. Pam believes: "God does not zap us. He leads us one step at a time as we become more like Him. It is a lifelong process of change."

Catholic
in Recovery

TUESDAYS
6 pm

Catholic in Recovery provides healing from addictions, compulsions, and unhealthy attachments. Family members impacted by a loved one's addiction are also encouraged to attend.

Meetings combine the spiritual principles of 12-step recovery and the sacraments of the Catholic Church. Join others in recovery as we overlap scripture from Sunday's Mass readings, liturgical themes, and recovery topics with honest discussion and prayer. Confidentiality is protected.

Hope and healing for those impacted by addiction.

FROM THE PASTOR

The blogger Elizabeth Duffy once wrote: "If motherhood is hard at times, it's probably because it allows us, without going terribly far out of our way, to mimic Christ." It is a great benefit in acknowledging that we can unite motherhood—whatever it looks like, physical or spiritual—with Jesus' sacrifice for us. Motherhood is, in fact, a Cross, and not just a Cross, but for those who are women, the sweetest Cross, the sweetest suffering.

Those two words are usually not put together: sweetness and suffering. Here's what I mean by the sweetest Cross: the Cross is chosen perfectly for you. It is your cross, not anyone else's cross. Christ chooses the particular Cross that He wants you to bear in motherhood. He promises that His yoke will be easy and His burden light. But that promise is true only if you take up the yoke that He has fitted perfectly to your shoulders. It only works if you don't try to take on someone else's yoke, someone else's idea of perfect motherhood. And sometimes that even means your own idea of perfect motherhood, if it conflicts with the motherhood that God has in mind for you.

Motherhood is a path for mothers to sanctify their families, and for mothers, in turn, to be sanctified by and through their families. In order to do this, God gives you the family that you need. He doesn't give you your neighbor's family, or your best friend's, or your frenemy's.

He may not even give you the family you hoped and prayed for, the family you dreamed of since you were a young girl. For many, it means a family bigger or smaller than imagined. But He gives you the family that will sanctify you.

Motherhood is a blend of the particular and the universal. You can think of those two levels—the ordinary everyday actions of your bodies, and the great offering of those actions to God—as the vertical axis of the Cross. It stretches from earth, at your feet, to Heaven. As mothers, you are to be a conduit, in both directions, to bring heaven down to your families and to offer your families back up to God.

The horizontal axis reaches from the past to the future, and here, too, you are called to surrender. You ache over yesterday's mistakes. You worry about what the future holds for your children. But Christ calls you to live here, now, in the moment you hold in your hands this second. It is only here, at the exact center of the Cross, between Heaven and earth, between yesterday and tomorrow, that you get those occasional, exquisite glimpses of heavenly joy in your mothering, when time seems to stop.

What are those moments? Consider these: When you reread your favorite book to the third child who is now old enough to hear it, and they delight in it as much as you did. When your son brings you a fistful of grubby weeds, beaming with pride. When you watch your baby sleep. Or receive First Communion. Or graduate. Or get married. Or ordained. When you know, with every fiber of your being, that you are exactly where God wants you and that you are doing His work. Sometimes, yes, the repetition, the worry, the lack of sleep, the heartache—they are all enough to break your heart. And in truth, God is trying to break your heart. But not for sorrow.

He uses motherhood to break your heart so that it breaks open enough for Him to come inside and reign there. All of those cracks are to empty you of yourselves so that God can fill in the spaces. Motherhood is designed to bring you to the very end of your own ability so that you recognize your powerlessness before Him. You are to recognize His mercy pouring out and filling every minute of your lives.

The results are not up to you. But the everyday effort, the work and the offering, the receiving and bearing forth of grace, living in the present moment ... that is up to you. Rest at the center of the Cross and enjoy the work!

On behalf of the clergy and ministry team of Mary, Queen of Peace, may you have a happy and blessed Mother's Day! May you see your motherhood, in the sweetness and suffering, as a blessing from the Lord.

ADULT VBS VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Vacation Bible School is one of the most joyful weeks of the summer at Mary, Queen of Peace, and it simply cannot happen without you. Our children are ready to learn, sing, and grow in faith, and they need adults willing to walk alongside them.

This year's theme, "There's No Way Like God's Way," reminds us that when we step forward in trust, God does the rest. Whether you can help for a few days or the whole week, your presence makes a lasting difference.

Come be part of the joy and help show our children that there truly is no way like God's way.

STEWARDSHIP

WHAT IS YOUR LEGACY?

Each of us has been blessed by God and entrusted with many gifts from Him. We are all called to receive God's gifts gratefully, to cherish and tend these gifts, to share them in justice and love with others and to return them with increase to the Lord. Part of our responsibility as stewards of God's gifts includes what is sometimes referred to as our "final act of stewardship" – the creation of our estate plan.

Our estate plan is part of our legacy, enabling us to use those gifts that have been given to us to provide for our loved ones in the future. We also have the opportunity to give witness to the importance of our faith and express our gratitude to God by making a gift to the Church that strengthens our parish for future generations.

If you are interested in a legacy gift, please contact Lori Kilgore at lkilgore@maryqueenofpeace.org or Joe Galloway at the Catholic Community Foundation: jgalloway@ccfnola.org.

STEWARD OF THE MONTH

Catherine Tully is our May Steward of the Month. Catherine assisted with hospitality for the OCI sessions and with the retreat on Palm Sunday, offering her radical hospitality as a gift to those entering the Catholic Church.

If you have a suggestion for Steward of the Month, please contact Karen Baker at kbaker@maryqueenofpeace.org

The Windsor
SENIOR LIVING COMMUNITY

COME SEE OUR NEWLY RENOVATED COMMUNITY AND MEET OUR STAFF TO CONSIDER A LIFESTYLE FREE OF STRESS OR WORRY!

The Windsor offers a carefree lifestyle for our seniors, while keeping affordability and personalized care as our top priorities. It has always been our mission to give seniors the peace of mind that is needed to maintain their independence, while aging in place through the use of our assisted living services menu.

Windsor residents no longer have to worry about meal preparation, housekeeping, or maintenance issues. Instead, they can enjoy walks around our beautiful pond surrounded by cypress trees, fine dining, and endless social activities.

ACTIVITIES:
- Outings & trips
- Special events & parties
- Worship services
- Continuing education
- Bingo, games & musical presentations
- Weekly Happy Hour with live entertainment
