An Absolute Surrender

Chad, a Marine Corps Veteran, realized he had an alcohol and drug addiction long ago and tried everything he could think of to cure himself. He was treading water, making no progress. He has now embraced acceptance, claiming 100% surrender. Chad is very willing to share his experience, strength and hope with us.

There is always hope!

Please join us on February 10, at 7pm.

If you or anyone you love is struggling with addiction, please reach out for help.
