Commissions:

Leadership: Bring joy to your council. Laughter is the best medicine and it is good for your health and reduces stress, fights against depression and sorrow, fosters a positive outlook on life and puts you in an all-around good mood. Thanks to our president who instigated our fellowship evening. Eat, drink and enjoy life. A joyful heart is the health of the body, but a depressed spirit dries up the bones (Pv. 17:22)

Spirituality: NCCW Spirituality Commission chair wrote about planting a Mary Garden sanctuary of your own; a place set aside to contemplate your blessings, pray for your loved ones and honor our Blessed Mother. Remember to come early to mass on Sundays and say the rosary (7:40). Saying the rosary before mass prepares us to celebrate the Eucharist.

Service: Council Sunday – Let your Light Shine.. Councils shall be encouraged to celebrate Council Sunday in the month of October or another fitting month of the year. We could be recognized with a prayer during "Prayer of the Faithful", lector and bring up the offertory gifts. We could recognize our Spiritual Advisor, Fr. Beau. He takes time to meet with us after Tuesday morning mass. There is a resource "Council Recognition month A Vision for the Future" in this resource. Could we send someone to the convention? Fulton J. Sheen book "World's First Love Mary Mother of God".

Fr. Beau visited group. His 8th anniversary into the priesthood was June 9.
