Corpus Christ - Solemnity

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Although the Eucharist is celebrated solemnly every day, we deem it fitting that at least once a year it be celebrated with greater honor and a solemn commemoration. Indeed we grasp the other things we commemorate with our spirit and our mind, but this does not mean that we obtain their real presence. On the contrary, in this sacramental commemoration of Christ, even though in a different form, Jesus Christ is present with us in his own substance. While He was about to ascend into Heaven he said "And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20).

Sacred Heart of Jesus - Solemnity

In St. John's Gospel, the Apostle records that during the Last Supper he leaned back and rested his head on Jesus' heart, which we might see as the beginning of devotion to the Sacred Heart. In the thirteenth century, on December 27, the Feast of Saint John the Apostle, the German religious sister and mystic Saint Gertrude the Great had a vision of Saint John with Jesus during which she discussed that moment at the Last Supper. In that vision, Saint John told Saint Gertrude that "the grace of hearing the eloquent voice of the Heart of Jesus" had been reserved for "these latter times" (Revelations of Saint Gertrude the Great).

About 400 years later, on December 27, 1673, the Feast of Saint John the Apostle, a French cloistered Visitation Nun named Sister Margaret Mary Alacoque received the first of four visions that took place over the next eighteen months in which Jesus revealed His Sacred Heart and His desire that a feast be instituted in its honor. Though she had other visions and mystical experiences throughout her life, these visions were directly related to the Sacred Heart.

The central message of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is the infinite and compassionate love exploding from the Heart of Jesus for all mankind. It emphasizes our Lord's sacred Sacrifice for our salvation and invites us to respond to His love. The Sacred Heart also calls us to make reparation for sins, especially human indifference and ingratitude toward Him. The nature of our Lord's love is that it cannot be contained within His Heart and necessarily bursts forth. When His love is received, He is consoled. When it is ignored, the love in His Heart expands and waits to gush forth in superabundance upon anyone who is willing to receive it.

In Margaret Mary's visions, Jesus also made twelve promises to those who would honor the Sacred Heart, including peace in their families, consolation in all their troubles, and Jesus' heart as their assured refuge in their last hour of life. When Sister Margaret Mary told her superior about her visions, her superior doubted their authenticity and had her meet with a spiritual director who was also doubtful. Eventually, Jesuit Father and future saint Claude de la Colombiere became Margaret Mary's confessor and spiritual director. He recognized the visions' authenticity and devoted much energy to the spreading of this devotion.

Toward the end of Sister Margaret Mary's life, her community began to celebrate the Feast of the Sacred Heart. In 1756, seventy-five years after Margaret Mary's death, Pope Clement XIII approved devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, paving the way for various ecclesiastical provinces throughout Europe to celebrate the feast. In 1856, Pope Pius IX placed the Feast of the Sacred Heart on the universal Roman Calendar, to be celebrated on the Friday after Corpus Christi.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I love You, adore You, and desire to lay my head upon Your Sacred Heart to receive the outpouring of Your love and love You all the more. I beg pardon for every sacrilege, indifference, and rejection You encounter and pray that I can make reparation to You. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I especially beg pardon for my sins and pray that they will be consumed by the fire of Your love. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You.
