Dominic Deliberations

Unanswered prayer disproves Jesus teaching on prayer, is a challenge proposed by Jimmy Akin with Catholic Answers. I have chosen three of his responses to this challenge here.

We do not have a promise that simply anything we pray for will happen. It must be the will of God (cf. Luke 22:42; James 4:13-15; 1 John 5:14).

Jesus indicates that in some cases we will need to believe without doubting (Matt. 21:21; cf. James 1:6-7).

The New Testament indicates that our individual dispositions can affect the outcome of our prayers in other ways, particularly with regard to whether we are living in a way pleasing to God (John 15:7; James. 4:3, 5:16; 1 Pet. 3:12; 1 John 3:22).

Prayer needs to be understood in the context of a family relationship. A father who's preparing his child to take over the family business isn't going to just give it to him. He's going to work with the child and make sure the child is ready to run the family business. "The God who knows more than we do is the same God who places on our hearts the desire to pray, to barter with him, even to argue with him. God invites us to wrestle with him in prayer, and he even rewards it. This is exactly what we should expect if he is raising sons and heirs instead of simply passive observers of his divine plan." Joe Heschmeyer

Aids to persevering in prayer: praying at home as a family is the first place where it's taught, prayer groups or friends that walk with you in prayer, daily time scheduled for prayer, having a designated space at home to pray, reading scripture daily, following the liturgical calendar, etc.

"Our help is from heaven and earth." The liturgy is the Church at prayer and it's led by a sacred minister chosen by God. As Moses was accompanied by ministers to hold his hands up in a form of prayer, so too does the Church provide this. The Bishop and priests will often have two deacons assisting them during the liturgy. As the battle for prayer rages on, we need those who walk with us to accompany us and encourage us to pray, not only daily but always without growing weary.

If prayer is a battle, reading paragraphs 2725-2745 in the Catechism, may be consoling, informative, and fruitful.

God bless,
Fr. Greg

Sunday Readings

Exodus 17:8-13
Psalm 121:1-8
2 Timothy 3:14 - 4:2
Luke 18:1-8

Catholic Corner

"...because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me." Luke 18:5

This passage is from the story of the Persistent Widow. She kept coming to a judge, who cared little about doing the right thing, and persistently begged him for a good judgment. Finally he gave in so as to get her to leave him alone.

Jesus used this story to teach a lesson about the necessity "to pray always without becoming weary" (Luke 18:1). It's interesting that the image of the judge is one "who neither feared God nor respected any human being" (Luke 18:2). But Jesus uses this image of an unjust judge to reveal the power of persistence and to reveal the depths of God's mercy.

First, we learn that this woman never gave up. So with us, we must never cease to lose hope in prayer. We must pray always, constantly and persistently. It's not that prayer changes God; rather, prayer changes us and disposes us to receive the immeasurable graces from God.

Second, we learn that if an uncaring judge will eventually give a good decision, then so much more will the merciful and all-loving God pour forth His good judgments in our lives when we trust Him. There should be no doubt in our lives that God can do all good things for us if we but let Him.

Reflect, today, upon how persistent you are in your prayer. The prayer you must seek to live is primarily a prayer of total trust and abandonment to God. You do not change God's mind by begging Him. Rather, your prayer must be so persistent that it opens you to the will of God and allows His grace to flow in accord with His perfect will.

Lord, I beg of You that Your perfect and holy will be done in my life. I abandon all to You, dear Lord. Do with me as You will. Jesus, I trust in You.

Help Needed!

We are looking for someone to plow the snow on the school playground this winter. If you or someone you know would be able to do this, please call the school, 608-744-2120 or the parish office, 608-744-2010. Thanks!

Box of Joy Project

The St. Rose School Family with the help of the Catholic Daughters is participating in the Box of Joy Project for Christmas. The kindergarten and 8th graders put all the boxes together to help children in need. Each classroom at St. Rose will have 2 boxes to fill together. If anyone else would like to take a box home to fill as a family, we welcome this idea. Listed below are the items they are asking for. We appreciate your support in this project. If you would like to help sponsor the shipping on a box or donate to the project, please contact Karrie Steinhart or the Catholic Daughters. This is a Catholic Outreach organization. We were able to donate to this project last year with great success. The deadline for the boxes is Monday October 27th, 2025. For children who swish for just one gift, your Box of Joy may be the only Christmas gift a child receives! Thank you for your generosity.

Holy Ghost & Immaculate Conception

Thank you

The IC Dance Committee would like to thank all of the sponsors, volunteers and participants for making this year's Mass and barn dance another huge success, raising $15,385 for HG-IC School. It was especially heartwarming to see so many young families attend Mass and come together to celebrate their faith, followed by a wonderful evening of laughter and dancing. Thanks again to everyone who helped make this event possible!!

IC Holy Name Society

Men of the parish, please join us for some good food and fellowship, Tuesday October 21 at 7:00 in the HG-IC School Cafeteria. We will discuss past and ongoing projects, preparation for the Mulligan, and upcoming events and needs of the church and school.

Ladies of CCW

We are looking for a lady from the parish who might be interested in becoming a Vice-President of the CCW starting in January 2026. Meetings are usually held once a month (taking the summer off). The CCW officers help plan out the work list for the Fall Festival as well as the monthly group activities. (We only have 3 activities a year and there is a committee for each of them.) It's a nice way to get involved with your parish and meet new people and make lasting friendships. Contact the parish office on Tuesday from 9-12 @ 854-2392

Lectors & Eucharistic Ministers

We are still in need of more people to be Lectors and/or Eucharistic Ministers. Please call the office at 608-854-2392 to sign up. There will be training Date TBD.

Thank you

The Bob Gallagher family would like to thank the CCW ladies and gentlemen that helped in any way with the funeral dinner. Connie Gallagher & Family.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to our 12 high school students at St. Francis-St Joseph that received Confirmation on October 12 at St Mary's Church in Platteville with Bishop Hying.
