Dominic Deliberations

Jesus went and dined at the home of a pharisee. We have lost the culture of dining together, the community was formed and nurtured around a table and food. All ages gathered together sharing life and learning from one another. I've even bemoaned the loss of good dining space in parish rectories because priests have grown so accustomed to living alone. I would encourage us to intentionally work at restoring a culture of gathering at people's homes and dining together. This culture starts as a family and then grows into a wider communal reality.

The fight for status often today plays out in the context of a sports arena more so than a wedding banquet. Today's readings encourage humility as a virtue to be sought. What does humility look like as an athlete, coach, parent, or fan. Do not approach with expectation of position but presume that one doesn't deserve to compete until the talent and skill is recognized. When one is chosen to compete, it is in order to grow and develop as a human being more than it is about winning a game or having status. One who is humble and understands their true identity succeeds in both winning and losing; there's integrity in them.

Those who have achieved success and are in the place of influence, invite and invest in those that can't repay you. Remember the humble means from which each has come and do not forget the lowly. In order to be successful, one needs to surround themselves with success, but it doesn't mean that one avoids or detests the unsuccessful. Wisdom can be received from some of the most unlikely places.

Hebrews chapter 12 and 1Corinthians 9:25 are good lessons in what we should be competing for and what it looks like. We invest a lot in sporting complexes and the activities that take place in them and yet the arena where eternal life is won and lost, there is very little engagement and investment.

In today's gospel, who was the guest and who was the host: Jesus or the pharisee? Was Jesus challenging or complimenting the pharisee?

God bless,

Fr. Greg

Catholic Corner

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully. Luke 14:1

What an interesting line. This line should not be overlooked in that it reveals a common reaction that some have to Jesus. What is the reaction? It's the tendency to observe Jesus carefully from a distance.

Look at the context of this statement. Jesus was invited to the home of a leading Pharisee and many other people were present. Those who were there would have been considered the "movers and shakers" of that time. They were the influential, wealthy, educated, and prestigious members of the community. Many would have been quite concerned about their reputation and quite curious about Jesus since He was growing in such popularity with the people. So, as a result, they were all "observing him carefully."

Notice the implication present in this description of their reaction to Jesus. Unlike the manifest sinners of that time, they did not come to Him, falling at His feet, begging for mercy. Rather, they appear to be quite interested in how Jesus will be accepted by others, what He will say and what they should think about Him. Even though it is unfortunate that they do not all completely turn to Jesus in faith, it's at least good that they are attentive to Jesus and realize He is unique.

This curiosity on their part is not all bad. In fact, it may lead some of them to salvation. By observing Jesus, they are clearly pondering Him, His words and His actions. This is good if and only if it results in each one of them turning to Him in faith and choosing to embrace our Lord regardless of what others think. This is a risk for those consumed with their own public image. But it's a risk that is worth taking. For those who are willing to humbly allow their observations to turn into true faith, their lives will change. But in order to do so, they must let go of any fear they have of what others may think.

Reflect, today, upon any tendency you have to only "observe" Jesus and His will from a distance. If you find you are curious and interested in the presence of God around you, do not hesitate to act on this curiosity, allowing His words and presence to change your life. Do not let yourself become concerned about what others may think. Give your life to Him without hesitation and you will be eternally grateful you did.

Lord, when I perceive Your presence in my life, give me the courage I need to respond. May I never let societal pressures or pride interfere with my turning to You. I love You, dear Lord. Help me to love You without reserve. Jesus, I trust in You.
