Jubilee Prayer | Oración del Jubileo

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen.

Padre que estás en el cielo, la fe que nos has donado en tu Hijo Jesucristo, nuestro hermano, y la llama de caridad infundida en nuestros corazones por el Espíritu Santo, despierten en nosotros la bien aventurada esperanza en la venida de tu Reino. Tu gracia nos transforme en dedicados cultivadores de las semillas del Evangelio que fermenten la humanidad y el cosmos, en espera confiada de los cielos nuevos y de la tierra nueva, cuando vencidas las fuerzas del mal, se manifestará para siempre tu gloria. La gracia del Jubileo reavive en nosotros, Peregrinos de Esperanza, el anhelo de los bienes celestiales y derrame en el mundo entero la alegría y la paz de nuestro Redentor. A ti, Dios bendito eternamente, sea la alabanza y la gloria por los siglos. Amén.

Weekly Reflection

Be Ready: The Master Is Coming

All too often, we take for granted the time we are given. We imagine years or decades are still ahead of us and tell ourselves, "I'll get around to it," or "Someday." But in today's Gospel, Jesus tells us: when it comes to your faith, don't wait. He is being very clear: we do not know the day or the hour, and so when the Master returns, whether at midnight, in the second watch, or the third, will he find us vigilant and ready, or distracted and spiritually asleep? Jesus is not trying to scare us. He is inviting us into freedom: a life where we live fully awake, with lamps lit, ready to greet him with joy. He tells us to not to be attached to material wealth but to share and be charitable, not because he wants us to live in fear or scarcity, but because he wants us to be unburdened. He wants us to treasure what truly lasts, but do we really know what treasures in our own life truly last? Ask yourself: If Jesus returned today, would he find you faithful and alert? When was the last time you made a real examination of your life or a good, thorough confession? When was the last time you reached out to mend a broken relationship? Watchfulness isn't about anxiety; it's about readiness. It's about returning to God today, not tomorrow. It's about living each moment of each day so that when we finally meet Jesus face-to-face, we can say: "Yes, Lord. I am ready. Welcome me into your heavenly kingdom." Because as Jesus tells us, "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much." That includes us. We have been entrusted with the treasure of the Gospel, with the grace of the sacraments, with the support of the Church, and with a calling to build God's kingdom here and now. That's no small gift, and it's certainly no small responsibility. Jesus isn't asking us to be perfect, but we do have to be faithful. We don't have to have all the answers, but we do have to keep showing up, keep repenting, keep serving. We have been given so much: faith, freedom, mercy, community, and hope. Let us not take that for granted. This week, take the time to reflect: what in your life, your relationships, or your walk with God needs healing or renewal? What has been left unsaid or undone? Many of us carry the quiet sorrow of having lost someone before we could say that one important thing, before we could make peace, ask forgiveness, or simply say thank you. That ache teaches us how precious the present moment truly is. In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks with unmistakable tenderness and urgency: do not wait. He is calling you now. So gather what weighs on your heart, and bring it to him next week. Lay it all before the loving, healing God who already knows, already loves, and longs to make you whole.

Are you ready, truly ready?

SVFS IS STILL ENROLLING FOR THE 2025-2026 SCHOOL YEAR

St. Vincent Ferrer Catholic School begins classes on August 19th, and we are still welcoming new students and their families! We invite our SVF parish families to join our mission of providing a faith-filled, academically strong Catholic education rooted in the love of Christ. To learn more, email admissions@svfsvallejo.org and discover the difference a Saints education can make.

Support Catholic Education at SVF

If you're an SVF parishioner or alum, please prayerfully consider contributing to one of these vital initiatives:

- Saints Strong Annual Fund – Helps make Catholic education affordable for parish families.
- Facilities Improvement Fund – Supports essential campus upgrades for current and future Saints.

Give today at <https://tinyurl.com/4kn6d9ze> and help us continue building strong students, strong families, and a strong faith community!
