ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Seventh Sunday of Easter

By Dr. Scott Hahn

Jesus is praying for us in today's Gospel. We are those who have come to believe in Him through the Word of the Apostles, handed on in His Church.

Jesus showed the Apostles His glory, made known the Father's name, and the love He has had for us from "before the foundation of the world."

He revealed that He and the Father are one (see John 14:9). Jesus is the "first and the last" (see Isaiah 44:6), the root of David (see Isaiah 11:10; 2 Samuel 7:12), as today's Second Reading declares.

Wrapped in clouds and darkness as God was at Sinai (see Exodus 19:16), He is "the king...the Most High over all the earth," as we sing in today's Psalm.

Exalted at God's right hand, as Stephen sees in the First Reading, the Lord calls to us through the Church, His Bride.

He calls us to "the tree of life," to communion with God. This is the goal of His love, His saving purpose from all eternity - that each of us enter into the life of Blessed Trinity, be "brought to perfection as one" with the Father and Son in the Spirit.

The story of Stephen, the first martyr, shows us how we are to answer His call.

Listen for the echoes of the crucifixion: Stephen, like Jesus, sees the Son of Man in glory and dies with words of forgiveness and self-offering on his lips (compare Acts 7:56-60; Matthew 26:64-65; Luke 23:24,46).

We, too, are to commend our spirits to the Father, to pray and offer our lives in love for our brethren, awaiting His coming in judgment. We renew our vows in every Mass, coming forward to receive the gift of His life.

We answer His call by crying out a call of our own: "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!" And in our communion we answer our Lord's prayer: "That they may all be one, as You, Father are in Me and I in You."

Help Us Plan for the March for Life 2026!

We're excited to begin preparing for the next March for Life in January 2026—and we need your input!

WHAT IS THE MARCH FOR LIFE? The Diocese of Buffalo joins hundreds of thousands of Catholics and others in Washington, D.C., participating in a peaceful march of public witness and prayer. Together, we advocate for the protection of pre-born life by seeking to change laws at both the state and federal levels and to build a culture of LIFE. Traditionally we have traveled together by bus, attended the evening Vigil Mass at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, and marched the next day to the Supreme Court Building.

Whether you've joined us before or have never attended the March, we want to hear from you! Your feedback will help us shape our plans and make the trip meaningful, accessible, and well-organized for everyone.

 Please take a few minutes to complete our short survey:
