From Fr. Cole Webster

This weekend at Masses at St. Stanislaus, St. John Gualbert, and St. Katharine Drexel, we welcome from India the Catechetical Sisters of Arogya Matha Kadapa. The sisters were started by the first bishop of Kadapa, the Most Rev. S.A. Aruliah on November 2, 1982 in South India. Inspired by the Gospel and the love of Christ, devotion to Mother Mary. Theirs is a new order. They are just 45 sisters and 35 candidates at various stages of formation. Their mission has been focused on evangelization in the rural villages, preparing candidates for baptism, confirmation, preparing the sick for their peaceful death, serving the poor, caring for orphaned children, empowering women, and supporting educational and pastoral initiatives in underserved communities. Teaching is also tailed to the young widows.

A second collection for the sisters will take place next weekend June 28/29. You may use your Mission Cooperative Envelope if it is included in your respective parish's packet.
