From Fr. Cole Webster

A huge THANK YOU to Fr. Mariusz and all the parishioners from Corpus Christi for organizing such a beautiful Corpus Christi procession this year! As we walk with Christ along our streets, I am always moved by the tremendous witness of faith. The witness of faith and reverence demonstrated by our parishioners and our collective witness to the community of our belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist! THANK YOU to the Polish Saturday School for erecting our first altar; St. Stanislaus Parishioners for erecting the second; the parishioners of St. Adalbert & St. John Gualbert for the third; and Henry Swiatek and Corpus Christi Parishioners for the forth.

While the Church has been in the news a lot lately as the diocese struggles to settle our Chapter 11 reorganization and bring some justice to victims, I consider myself blessed that we are all able to afford the contributions being asked of us, that Christ remains the center of our parish communities, that our mergers have went smoothly, and that we still have each other to walk with on our journey of faith!

Congratulations!

"So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, no human being must separate."

Matthew 19:6

The Apostles' Church By Dr. Scott Hahn

This Sunday's celebration of the great apostles Peter and Paul is a celebration of the Church. Peter's deliverance from jail is compared to the deliverance of Israel from Egypt. Like Israel he is rescued at Passover from "the hand" of his enemy by an "angel of the Lord" after girding himself with belt, sandals, and cloak (see Ex 3:8; 12:8, 11–12; 14:19).

The Church is, as Peter says, "all that the Jewish people had been expecting." As he affirms in his great confession of faith in Sunday's Gospel, Jesus is "the Christ," the Messiah that the prophets had taught Israel to hope for. But Christ is more than what the Jewish people had been hoping for.

He is the Christ. But He is also, as Peter confesses, "the Son of the living God." Born of the flesh of the Jewish people, he is a son of Abraham and David (see Mt 1:1; Rm 1:3). Through Him and the Church founded on the rock of Peter's faith, God fulfills the promise he made to Abraham—to bless all nations in his seed (see Gen 22:18).

What Christ calls "my Church," is the new Israel, the kingdom of God, the family made up of all peoples—Jews and Gentiles—who believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God (see Gal 3:26–29; 6:16). And we must make this confession our own. Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" is addressed to each of us personally.

We must confess our faith in Christ not only with our tongues, but with our lives. As Paul describes his discipleship in this week's Epistle, we must make our lives an oblation, an offering of love for the sake of Jesus and His kingdom (see Rm 12:1).

We know, as we sing in this week's Psalm, that the Lord has rescued us in Christ Jesus. We know that he will stand by us, giving us strength to face every evil—and that He will bring us to the heavenly kingdom we anticipate in this Eucharist.
