From Fr. Cole Webster

As I mentioned in my call to the parishes this past Monday, I often find that we as church are very dedicated to our Sunday worship and that we also spend a lot of our time and energy on fundraising/socializing. But what about coming together to simply pray, eat, learn, and discuss our thoughts with other people? Personally, I learn so much and am edified by listening to the lived experience of others.

That is where ALPHA comes in as it wonderfully bridges the gap between fundraising/socialization and Sunday Worship. Attendees are invited to come together for a meal, pray together, watch a short video, and then discuss (if they want) what our topic means to them. Is there really more to life than this? Why did Jesus have to die? What do we mean when we say to "have faith?"

If you are looking to grow in your relationship with Jesus or are searching for a sense of community and comradery, then ALPHA is for you! All are invited so bring a friend to our first session on September 23 at the Pitass Center at St. Stanislaus!

Are YOU....

- Interested in becoming a Catholic?
- An adult who has never been confirmed?
- Interested in a wedding or a convalidation?
- Someone who needs an annulment?

If so, please contact Fr. Cole at the Central Office at 716-854-5510 or email him at:

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

By Dr. Scott Hahn
Counting the Cost

Like a king making ready for battle or a contractor about to build a tower, we have to count the cost as we set out to follow Jesus.

Our Lord today is telling us upfront the sacrifice it will take. His words aren't addressed to His chosen few, the Twelve, but rather to the "great crowds" - to "anyone," to "whoever" wishes to be His disciple.

That only makes His call all the more stark and uncompromising. We are to "hate" our old lives, renounce all the earthly things we rely upon, to choose Him above every person and possession. Again He tells us that the things we have - even our family ties and obligations - can become an excuse, an obstacle that keeps us from giving ourselves completely to Him (see Luke 9:23-26, 57-62).

Jesus brings us the saving Wisdom we are promised in today's First Reading. He is that saving Wisdom. Weighed down by many earthly concerns, the burdens of our body and its needs, we could never see beyond the things of this world, could never detect God's heavenly design and intention. So in His mercy He sent us His Spirit, His Wisdom from on High, to make straight our path to Him.

Jesus himself paid the price for to free us from the sentence imposed on Adam, which we recall in today's Psalm (see Genesis 2:7; 2:19). No more will the work of our hands be an affliction, no more are we destined to turn back to dust.

Like Onesimus in today's Epistle, we have been redeemed, given a new family and a new inheritance, made children of the father, brothers and sisters in the Lord. We are free now to come after Him, to serve Him - no longer slaves to the ties of our past lives. In Christ, all our yesterdays have passed. We live in what the Psalm today beautifully describes as the daybreak of His kindness. For He has given us wisdom of heart, taught us to number our days aright.

Due to the closing of St John Kanty Church, The Diocese of Buffalo has requested that all of the cremains currently in the columbarium at the church be moved to a secure spot under the protection of the Catholic Cemeteries group. All of the cremains will be moved to the Crucifixion Columbarium at the Dale Rd. location of St Adalberts Cemetery. If you are related to anyone in the columbarium and have not been contacted by Catholic Cemeteries please give us a call at (716) 873-6500. Ask for Deacon Dave. We pride ourselves on the honor of keeping your families remains in a safe and holy area. Please remember that the Catholic Church and Catholic Cemeteries have an almost sacred responsibility to maintain our brothers and sisters for the next thousand years. Know that we take this very seriously and promise to oversee these grounds forever.
