Welcome! New Parishioners & Guests.*

Thank you for joining us today! We are so glad you are here! We are eager to meet you & invite you to learn more about our parish and register at the Parish Office.

Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear friends of Blessed Trinity,
Go out to all the world and tell the Good News! (Mk 16:15).

With the Responsorial Psalm from Holy Mass reverberating still within our ears and our hearts, we go forth and proclaim the joy of the Gospel. Such is the command of the Lord. Such is the duty of our faith

In a particular and practical way, we are taking this charge with earnestness and resolve. This week we will begin the Pre-School Ministry of our parish, Beacon of Light Pre-School. In this Jubilee year signaled by the virtue of hope, we ask God to sanctify our work and stir within us abiding faith and confidence. We are eager to bear His light in the midst of an oft darkened world.

With great enthusiasm I invite you to join us this week as we welcome His Excellency, Most Rev. William Byrne, our Bishop of Springfield, and local leadership including the Honorable Ginny Desorgher, Mayor of Greenfield to a celebration and grand opening of our Pre-School. This Tuesday, August 26th at 2:30 PM, with Mrs. Catherine Cuff, our Director of Educational Outreach, now lead teacher and administrator of our ministry, along with our teaching staff, many faithful volunteers, and each other, we will ask God's blessing upon our effort for the good of Greenfield and the good of Franklin County.

Yes, let us take the evangelical charge to go out to all the world and proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ. Let us do so right here in our neighborhoods and among our families. Let us do so with our children and young parents upon whom we look with living hope!

Most Holy Trinity, I adore You!

My God, I love you in the Most Blessed Sacrament!

Fr. Pierz

THE PASSION OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST.

The Memorial of the Passion of Saint John the Baptist complements the Solemnity of his birth, celebrated on 24 June. John is the cousin of Jesus. He was conceived when his parents, Zechariah and Elizabeth, were elderly. Both his parents were descendants of priestly families. John's birth took place about six months prior to that of Christ, and coincides with the Gospel episode of the Visitation of Mary to Elizabeth. The liturgical celebration of his martyrdom, which occurred between 31 and 32, has ancient origins. It was already celebrated in France in the 5th century, and in Rome the following century and can be traced to the dedication of a small basilica that dates back to the 5th century where he was buried in Sabaste in Samaria. Tradition holds it was on this day that his head was found. Pope Innocent II had it later transferred to Rome to the Church of Saint Sylvester in Capite.

The king promptly dispatched an executioner with orders to bring back his head. He went off and beheaded him in the prison. He brought in the head on a platter and gave it to the girl. The girl in turn gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb. (MK 6:17-29)

THE MOTIVATIONS FOR JOHN THE BAPTIST'S MARTYRDOM.

A woman played the primary role in his martyrdom. Herodias, the wife of Herod Antipas, was the former wife of his half-brother. John was arrested because he had denounced her illegal marriage. During the celebration of Herod's birthday, Herodias's daughter, Salome, performed a dance in honor of the king who remained enchanted and told her she could ask him for anything she wanted, even to half of his kingdom. After consulting her mother, Salome asked for the head of John the Baptist. Herod did not want to do it, but could not refuse: he had, after all, made a promise.

OUR FAITH.

POPE FRANCIS'S COMMENTARY.

There are four characters: King Herod “corrupt and indecisive;” Herodias, the wife of the king’s brother who “knew only how to hate;” Salome, “the vain ballerina,” and the “prophet, decapitated and alone in his cell.”

THE KING.

The king “believed John the Baptist was a prophet.” Initially, he protected John and “liked to listen” to him. But he kept him in prison. He was indecisive because John had accused him of the sin of adultery. Herod “heard God’s voice” in the prophet, “telling him to ‘change your life’.” But he did not succeed in doing that. The king was corrupt. It is difficult to get out of corruption.” His corruption led him to attempt to strike a “diplomatic balance” between his own life, which was not only adulterous, but also “filled with many injustices that he kept going ahead with.” He was also aware of the “holiness of the prophet that was before him.” But he did not succeed in untying the knot.

HERODIAS.

The second character is Herodias, the wife of the king’s brother who was put to death by Herod in order to have her. The Gospel says she “hated John” because he spoke with clarity. “We know that hatred is capable of anything,” Pope Francis commented. Indeed, “hatred is a great power. Hatred is the breath of Satan. Think about it: he does not know how to love, he cannot love. His ‘love’ is ‘hatred’.” And this woman possessed the satanic spirit of hatred” that destroys.

SALOME.

Finally, the third character, the daughter of Herodias, Salome, the wonderful dancer, “who so pleased the guests and the king.” In his enthusiasm, Herod promised the girl, “I will give you everything.” “He uses the same words that Satan used to tempt Jesus. ‘If you adore me, all this is yours.’” But Herod could not have known.

JOHN THE BAPTIST, A HOLY MAN.

“Satan is behind all these characters. He sows hatred in the woman, vanity in the young woman and corruption in the king,” the Pope concluded. John, “the greatest man born of a woman” died alone in a cell because of the whim of a vain dancer, the hatred of a diabolical woman and the corruption of an indecisive king. The Baptist dies a martyr. Not a martyr of the faith, because he was not asked to renounce it. He is a martyr of truth. He was, in fact, a “righteous and holy man” (Mk 6:20) who was put to death because he spoke freely and was faithful to his calling. He is a martyr who allowed himself to diminish so as to leave his place to the Messiah. “Those who are great end up like this!” But John knew he had to be annihilated: “He must increase, I, instead, decrease.” And, added Pope Francis, “he decreased to the point of death.” John had pointed Jesus out to His first disciples, indicating that He was the Light of the world. He, instead, gave his life little by little, to the point of being extinguished in the darkness of a prison cell.

“Life has value only when we give it; when it is given in love, in truth; when we give it to others, in daily life, in our families. It should always be given. If someone grasps his or her life in order to keep it, like the king by his corruption, or the woman with her hatred, or the child, the young girl with her vanity that was that of an adolescent, naive, life dies, life ends up withered, it is useless.”
