Welcome! New Parishioners & Guests.

Thank you for joining us today! We are so glad you are here! We are eager to meet you & invite you to learn more about our parish and register at the Parish Office.

Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear friends of Blessed Trinity,

As soon as I turned the page from August to September, I knew we were in a new season. Not just the crispness of the morning air or the lingering shadows of a straining sunset but also the new pace and rhythm of daily life.

The streets are filled with schoolbuses again and the summer siesta seems to be replaced with a September swiftness.

Our Pre-School has been a center of activity this first week putting to good use the graces received in episcopal blessing and Greenfield festivity. May divine favor continue to flow upon this effort and, most especially, upon the children and families who greet us each day. Special thanks and congratulations to our teachers, Mrs. Catherine Cuff, Mrs. Anita Morin, and Miss Gemma Mohun!

On Wednesday, Fr. Williams offered a most beautiful and meditative Evening of Recollection for Men in celebration of the Memorial of Pope St. Gregory the Great. Called to be contemplatives in action, may the men of our parish be rooted in prayer, steadfast in sacrament, and eager to engage the world in holiness. Following this week's event, I am eager for the Evening of Recollection for Women to be held on the Memorial of St. Thérèse of Lisieux in the first week of October. May the Little Flower reveal her wisdom and I invite the women of our parish to attend this special evening.

As I mentioned, September starts rolling speedily. This week our Pastoral Council will meet to inaugurate its new term (while the Finance Council begins the following week) and several pastoral and financial commissions have already begun meeting. I look forward to the initiatives and evangelizing outreach we can consider and engage in this year.

With the new term of the Pastoral Council, we welcome three new representative members. Following the April nomination period, six individuals were presented for candidacy for two full-term seats and one seat vacated by a departing member. Three persons accepted nomination and so all three seats have been filled. Our Pastoral Council welcomes Robin Whitney, Michele Morin, and Suzi Cottrill as its newest at-large members! Please also join me in thanking Marcy Hoynoski and Sandra Pavoni whose terms have been completed and who did not seek re-election. Marcy and Sandra are among the founding members of our Pastoral Council and their insights have been most appreciated. To one and all, congratulations!

Yes, dear friends, September is gearing up. Let us continue to implore God's blessing upon our parish, our county, our diocese, and all our intentions. Let us be contemplatives in action and eager witnesses to the wisdom and beauty of faith in Christ!

Most Holy Trinity, I adore You!

My God, I love you in the Most Blessed Sacrament!

FEAST DAY OF SAINT PETER CLAVER—SEPTEMBER 9TH

St. Peter Claver was born at Verdu, Catalonia, Spain, in 1580, of impoverished parents descended from ancient and distinguished families. He studied at the Jesuit college of Barcelona, entered the Jesuit novitiate at Tarragona in 1602 and took his final vows on August 8th, 1604. While studying philosophy at Majorca, the young religious was influenced by St. Alphonsus Rodriguez to go to the Indies and save "millions of perishing souls."

In 1610, he landed at Cartagena (modern Colombia), the principle slave market of the New World, where a thousand slaves were landed every month. After his ordination in 1616, he dedicated himself by special vow to the service of the Negro slaves—a work that was to last for thirty-three years. He labored unceasingly for the salvation of the African slaves and the abolition of the Negro slave trade, and the love he lavished on them was something that transcended the natural order.

Boarding the slave ships as they entered the harbor, he would hurry to the revolting inferno of the hold, and offer whatever poor refreshments he could afford; he would care for the sick and dying, and instruct the slaves through Negro catechists before administering the Sacraments. Through his efforts three hundred thousand souls entered the Church. Furthermore, he did not lose sight of his converts when they left the ships, but followed them to the plantations to which they were sent, encouraged them to live as Christians, and prevailed on their masters to treat them humanely. He died in 1654. (www.catholic.org)

OUR FAITH.

RESPECT LIFE

Prayer
& Action

PRAY. Our Father, 3 Hail Marys, Glory Be

REFLECT. In 2021, Pope Francis established the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. In the U.S., we observe this celebration in September, joining the Church's efforts to highlight the value and importance of grandparents and the elderly in our families and in society.

While the elderly have traditionally held places of honor in various cultures, today, elderly members of our families and communities often live lives marked by isolation and loneliness. Rather than being a beloved and integral part of a family, they are too often forgotten or overlooked. In the most tragic circumstances, some even seek to end their own lives through assisted suicide so as not to be a burden to their loved ones. Pope Francis has described this shift as a "throwaway culture" in which the weakest are neglected or worse when they are no longer of interest or "use."

As persons made in the image and likeness of God, we possess an infinite dignity that can never be compromised by age or ability. This truth must guide each of us in our responsibility to lovingly accompany those who are in greater need of our time, care, and attention as they face their later years. Such accompaniment is of particular importance as they near the end of their lives, often enduring great sufferings as they prepare for their entrance to eternal life.

May each of us hear and respond to the plea of the elderly entrusted to our care: "Do not cast me aside in my old age; as my strength fails, do not forsake me" (Psalm 71:9).

CHOOSE ONE.

- Offer the Prayer for the Fourth World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly.
- Take time this week to call or visit an elderly grandparent, family member, neighbor, or friend.
- Offer some other sacrifice or prayer that you feel called to do for this month's intention.

MUSIC MINISTRY. NEW CANTORS & CHOIR MEMBERS NEEDED

The Music Ministry of Blessed Trinity Parish is actively seeking new members! We are in need of New Choir Members and Cantors for our parish. We want to stress that you do not need any prior singing experience or knowledge of reading music, just a desire to sing with others. This is a truly wonderful way to expand your worship and perform an extremely important service for the church.

Rehearsals for our 9:30am Sunday Mass are on Tuesdays in the Holy Trinity choir loft at 6:30pm. Entrance to the church for rehearsals is from the parking lot door.

Rehearsals for our 11:00am Sunday Mass are on Wednesdays at 7:00pm at Blessed Sacrament. Entrance to the church for rehearsals is from the back parking lot door.

For special occasions, such as Christmas & Easter, both choirs join together in song.

The camaraderie of both of these groups is second to none, we would truly love to have you join us!!
