Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear friends of Blessed Trinity,
Today begins the holy and preparatory season that is Advent. We await the coming of the Lord. As His birth was marked in time, so too does our prayer and expectant hope experience the anticipation of the presence of the Lord.

“It is the hour now for you to awake from sleep. For our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed” we hear St. Paul write to our forebears. “Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light”!

In a timely way, the First Sunday of Advent falls this year on the same weekend our nation celebrates a feast of thanksgiving. This offers us an opportunity to consider anticipation and gratitude in a united way. We can give thanks for gifts thus far received. We can give thanks for the gift to come. What greater gift can there be for which we give thanks but that of salvation in Christ Jesus Himself. We are saved in Christ and we look to our salvation in Christ.

Recently having spent some time with seminary classmates we gave thought to this time of advent expectation and how best to appreciate the true gift of God's grace. I share with you the words of my friend Fr. Scott:

May this year's Advent be a fruitful time for each of us. Advent is a time of waiting and preparation. As you pray in these coming weeks, I encourage you to take the time with the Lord in silence to consider the coming of the Savior. What does it mean that you need a Savior? What does it mean that God understands your life because Jesus had a similar life? What does it mean that God wanted to speak and teach and engage with us in our humanity? Christmas will be here quickly; waiting and preparation will slow that time down and get us ready.

Most Holy Trinity, I adore You!

My God, I love you in the Most Blessed Sacrament!

Fr. Pierz

Advent Prayer

Come, long-expected Jesus.
Excite in me a wonder at the wisdom and power of Your Father and ours.
Receive my prayer as part of my service of the Lord who enlists me in God's own work for justice.

Come, long-expected Jesus.
Excite in me a hunger for peace:
peace in the world,
peace in my home,
peace in myself.

Come, long-expected Jesus.
Excite in me a joy responsive to the Father's joy.
I seek His will so I can serve with gladness, singing and love.

Come, long-expected Jesus.
Excite in me the joy and love and peace it is right to bring to the manger of my Lord.
Raise in me, too, sober reverence for the God who acted there,
hearty gratitude for the life begun there,
and spirited resolution to serve the Father and Son.

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, whose advent I hail.

Amen

ADVENT PENANCE SERVICE.

This Sunday!

Holy Trinity Church | 2:00 pm

Advent is the perfect time to prepare our souls for the coming of Christmas. This special Communal Penance Service provides a time to go to Confession, where multiple priests are available.

Everyone gathers together in the church, listens to a reading from the Bible, followed by a brief homily.

After the homily, together we hear and reflect upon an Examination of Conscience. The service ends with individual confession, contrition, and absolution, in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Additional Advent Reconciliation Hours:

Mondays 7:00pm—9:00pm

OUR FAITH.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT.

“So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.” Matthew 24:44

Once again, we enter into the holy season of Advent. Advent, more than anything else, is a time of spiritual preparation by which we dispose ourselves more fully to receive the greatest Gift we could ever receive: Christ Jesus Himself!

The readings for this First Sunday of Advent remind us that the Savior of the World will one day return to earth. We are reminded that He will return in all His splendor and glory and that this coming will be “at an hour you do not expect...”

Though it's true that our Lord could return to earth for the Last Judgment and the re-creation of Heaven and earth at any time, most people do not expect this to happen anytime soon. And though that may be the case, our Lord goes to great lengths to encourage us to always be prepared for this final coming, stating clearly that it truly could be at any time.

How prepared are you if that day were to be today? Ignore the rationalization that it most likely will not be today and simply consider your preparedness for that definitive moment in time. This preparedness is one of the central keys to our holy living. If we were able to live today and every day hereafter as if it were that day, the day of our Lord's return, then there is little doubt that our holiness of life would greatly increase as we live with this ongoing anticipation and preparedness.

One of the effects of living day after day, year after year, in a state of perpetual preparedness is that we are not only ready if our Lord does indeed return today, but, just as importantly, we remain perpetually attentive to the countless ways that He does come to us each and every day. This form of perpetual preparedness forms within us a spiritual habit of hearing and responding to the voice of God and the countless graces He sends to us every day. This habitual preparedness is a virtue by which the coming of Christ transforms who we are, here and now, and enables Him to live more fully within us, accomplishing His mission of redeeming the world in and through us.

Reflect, today, upon the burning desire in the heart of Christ that we form this holy habit of always being attentive to Him and always remain in a state of constant reception of His holy presence in our lives. Let Him come to you, today, now, and do not wait. Put your eyes on Him today. Do not put off to tomorrow that which Jesus is asking of you today. Doing so will not only prepare you for His final and glorious coming at the end of the world, it will also prepare you for the daily and total transformation of your life.

My ever-present Lord, You constantly come to me at an unexpected hour to pour forth Your grace and mercy into my life. Help me to form within me a permanent habit of preparedness by which I continually open myself to You and to Your perfect will for my life. May this Advent be a true time in which my readiness to meet You increases a hundredfold. Jesus, I trust in You.

HONORING SAINT ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY.

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary (1207–1231) was a princess renowned for her deep compassion and dedication to the poor. From a young age, she showed a strong religious devotion that guided her choices throughout life. She married Ludwig IV of Thuringia, and together they were known for their charitable works and mutual respect.

After Ludwig's death, Elizabeth devoted herself entirely to serving the sick and impoverished. She famously built hospitals and personally tended to the suffering, becoming a symbol of Christian charity. Her generosity sometimes drew criticism from the nobility, but she remained steadfast in her mission. Elizabeth died at just twenty-four, leaving behind a legacy of selfless love and service. She was canonized only a few years later and is now celebrated as a patron saint of the poor and of charitable organizations.

Our Beacon of Light preschoolers baked loaves of bread and donated it to our Community Meal as part of their monthly saint unit.

ADVENT DAILY REFLECTIONS.

Rooted—Rediscover the Jesse Tree

This 22-episode series guides Catholics through a daily Advent reflection using the Jesse Tree model traditionally practiced by families. Each seven-minute episode introduces the ancestors of Jesus Christ, shares a Scripture passage, and offers an engaging, practical reflection. Hosted by Dr. Scott Hefelfinger, Rooted helps viewers apply the passage and related teachings to each day of Advent, guided by the Church's teaching.

MITTEN TREES.

These special trees will be placed at the entrances of both of our churches starting on December 1st. We will be collecting hats, scarves, mittens, gloves & socks to be donated through December 31st.

These items will be donated to those in need throughout our community of Franklin County.

Sponsored by our Pastoral Ministry to the Homeless, Poor, & Hungry.

BLANKET & WARM CLOTHES DRIVE.

To benefit local homeless through our community meal each Thursday, a blanket and warm clothing drive is being conducted by the Knights of Columbus through March. If you would like to donate, please leave the blankets and clothing in the containers by the doors of either church. For more information contact Lou Grader or Jay Dillon at 413.773.3311
