Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear friends of Blessed Trinity,
Merry Christmas!

These Christmas days are especially instructive for us in the mystery and working of God's grace in our midst. The liturgy has proposed faithful intonations worthy our thought. Our family gatherings and celebrations at Holy Mass open for us considerations leading us to a deeper appreciation and intimacy with God's will.

After several weeks of Advent waiting, we rejoiced in the birth of our Saviour. In the company of the Holy Family of Nazareth, we marveled at the handiwork of God. With humility and openness to His angelic messengers, the first to greet the newborn king alongside St. Mary and St. Joseph were the shepherds tending their flocks. Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. Worldly powers willing to recognize divine majesty approach on bended knee.

The revelation of the Lord's glory, hidden in the womb of Mary and then birthed into the world at Christmas, is revealed to shepherds and sages alike. Whether peering into the vast reaches of Creation's craftiwork or simply fulfilling our duties among the flocked fields of the world's affairs, each and every one has the privilege and opportunity to look upon the Christchild and receive His love. God's love is revealed to us in His human face.

As we enter this new year 2026, I invite you and all our families to hear again the words of Sacred Scripture we reflected upon together recently.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.

With gratitude and joy may we learn to sing His praises and may the stewardship of His grace, entrusted to each and every one of us, be our mantle and charge in the new year! Merry Christmas!

Most Holy Trinity, I adore You!

My God, I love you in the Most Blessed Sacrament!

HOW TO BLESS YOUR HOME ON THE FEAST OF EPIPHANY

Have you ever walked past a door and seen what appears to be random letters and numbers written at the top? These letters and numbers actually have a great significance.

Traditionally on the feast of Epiphany, Catholics bless their homes by writing the letters C, M, and B and the numbers of the year on either side — so this year it would look like “20+C+M+B+26.”

The letters stand for the traditional names of the three Magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. They also represent the Latin blessing “Christus mansionem benedicat,” which means “May Christ bless this house.”

Many Catholic parishes will give their parishioners a piece of chalk, a small bottle of holy water, and the words for the house blessing so that each family can bless its home.

Epiphany, which is also known as “Little Christmas,” is the feast that celebrates the arrival of the three Magi who came to worship the child Jesus shortly after His birth. It is traditionally celebrated on Jan. 6. However, the Church in the United States celebrates it on the Sunday between Jan. 2 and Jan. 8. Many around the world celebrate this feast with as much pomp and circumstance as Christmas, including the exchanging of gifts.

The blessing, which is popular in Poland and other Slavic countries, has spread around the world and become increasingly popular in the United States.

OUR FAITH.

HOW DO YOU BLESS YOUR HOME?

Begin by having all family members gather outside the front door. All make the sign of the cross. One person will then read this prayer:

Leader: Peace be to this house.

All: And to all who dwell herein.

Leader: From the East came the Magi to Bethlehem to adore the Lord; and opening their treasures they offered precious gifts: gold for the great King, incense for the true God, and myrrh in symbol of his burial.

(Enter your home and read the Magnificat, the hymn of praise sung by the Blessed Virgin Mary in Luke's Gospel after being greeted by Elizabeth. During this, sprinkle the area you are in with holy water. After that is complete, pray:)

All: From the East came the Magi to Bethlehem to adore the Lord; and opening their treasures they offered precious gifts: gold for the great King, incense for the true God, and myrrh in symbol of his burial.

Leader: Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation,

All: But deliver us from evil.

Leader: All they from Saba shall come

All: Bringing gold and frankincense.

Leader: O Lord, hear my prayer.

All: And let my cry come unto Thee.

Leader: Let us pray. O God, Who by the guidance of a star didst on this day manifest Thine only-begotten Son to the Gentiles, mercifully grant that we who know Thee by faith may also attain the vision of Thy glorious majesty. Through Christ, Our Lord.

All: Amen.

Leader: Be enlightened, be enlightened, O Jerusalem, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee — Jesus Christ born of the Virgin Mary.

All: And the Gentiles shall walk in thy light and kings in the splendor of thy rising, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon thee.

Leader: Let us pray. Bless, O Lord God almighty, this home, that in it there may be health, purity, the strength of victory, humility, goodness, and mercy, the fulfillment of Thy law, the thanksgiving to God the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. And may this blessing remain upon this home and upon all who dwell herein. Through Christ, Our Lord.

All: Amen.

After the prayers are recited, walk throughout your home sprinkling each room with holy water. Then write the initials of the Magi connected with crosses at the top of your front door. Then the numbers of the year. The numbers will be split so that they are on each side of the initials. You will write:

20 + C + M + B + 26

This is a special tradition at the beginning of each year, a way to invite God into your home and place your family under his protection. (www.catholicnewsagency.com)

KING CAKES: THE TASTIEST EPIPHANY TRADITION

Each year, Catholic cultures around the world celebrate the new year with a festive “King Cake,” a delectable seasonal cake decorated to look like a crown. The cakes are especially popular on — the feast for which they are most commonly associated — and throughout the Carnival season in French-inspired areas such as New Orleans, selling consistently until Fat Tuesday signals the end of pre-Lenten indulgences.

King Cakes are marked by the presence of a small figurine — most commonly a baby — which is baked into the cake. Traditionally whoever’s fork finds the figurine is crowned “king for the day” and is tasked with the responsibility of providing the next year’s (or, in New Orleans, the next party’s) King Cake. The small baby figurine is representative of the infant Jesus and is most likely a nod to the story of the visit of the Magi, which we celebrate on Epiphany Sunday.

The tradition of baking King Cakes is believed to have started with a pagan custom of baking winter sweets filled with dried fruits and containing objects, like a whole nut, that served as a portent of good luck. During the Middle Ages the celebration became linked to the Epiphany in France and Spain, but the practice spread across Europe and was brought to the New World, where it developed further. In New Orleans, the King Cake became a standard of Mardi Gras and is found all over the city from the new year until Ash Wednesday.

While it is common today for the trinket within the King Cake to be a small plastic baby, there have been many iterations of this “prize,” which began as a simple fava bean until the 1800s. For many years the trinkets were made of ceramic, but in the 1950s the famed New Orleans bakery McKenzie’s popularized the small plastic baby figurines in the cakes and the new, less dentally-dangerous insert gained popularity quickly.
