Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear friends of Blessed Trinity,

“I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life” (Jn 8:12).

As we sing Alleluia at Mass, we give glory and raise praise to God Almighty. Indeed, the word Alleluia, comes from the Hebrew root Hillel Yahweh, that is, praise to God. The Gospel Acclamation is a phrase of Sacred Scripture sung or said between the refrains of the always sung Alleluia. The acclamation, like the one from today above, orients our contemplation of Sacred Scripture and what we are about to hear proclaimed.

“I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life” (Jn 8:12).

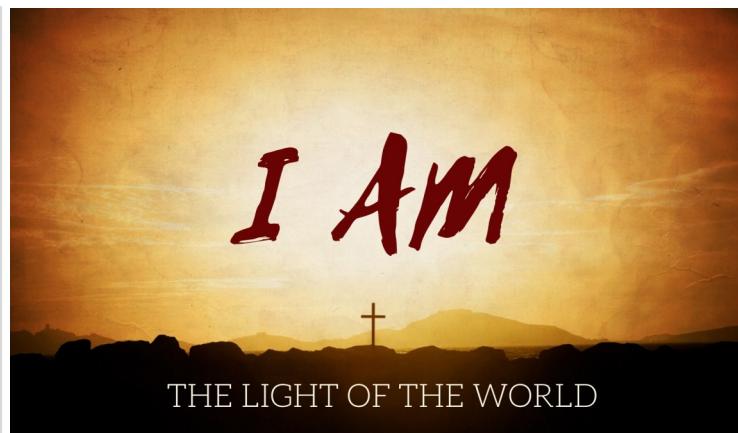

Our Gospel today reminds us of the light of God’s grace in our lives. You and I are called to reflect the great splendor and radiance of Heaven by our faith and works. “Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father” (Mt. 5:16).

As we bear the bleakness and coldness of winter in nature, let us not forget how bright the days can be. Though we still bear the cold burden, the sun is already brighter in our midst and even the birds are raising a hopeful melody. Creation itself resonates in God’s promise. As men and women of faith, you too can be “a light in darkness to the upright”. You too can be a light in the world!

Most Holy Trinity, I adore You!

My God, I love you in the Most Blessed Sacrament!

BLESSED TRINITY LIBRARY

Our parish has a large supply of Catholic and religious books which our dedicated volunteers have catalogued and sorted. We are in the process of creating a library space, open to all in our community, in our Pastoral Center. Our plan is to add bookshelves along the walls around our Blessed Virgin Mary statue.

Bookcases that match the wood tone of the doors added along the wall around the statue area will make our lobby feel warmer and more cohesive. The light wood color will visually tie the room together with the doors, providing a sense of balance and continuity. The bookcases would frame the statue nicely, giving it a more deliberate, central placement.

Books, religious texts, or decorative items on the shelves will add texture and life to the space, breaking up the large, plain wall and making the room feel more inviting and furnished. The contrast between the natural wood and the gray walls will enhance depth and visual interest while maintaining the calm, contemplative feeling of the room.

In the future we hope to enhance the seating area. Unfortunately, the couches and furniture there previously was rated residential and not up to code. If you would like to assist in or support this effort, please contact Deacon George at the Parish Office.

St. Scholastica

Patron Saint of Nuns

Memorial: February 10

St. Scholastica was the twin sister of St. Benedict of Nursia. She was consecrated to God at her birth, but continued to live at home until her brother founded his monastery at Monte Cassino. She then established a convent nearby.

Because of their work, the twins were able to meet only once a year to talk and share spiritual insights.

One evening, as their day of prayer and discussions was ending, Scholastica begged her brother to stay the night so they could spend more time together. He refused, as he would never spend a night away from his monastery. She began to cry and prayed.

In the next moments, a fierce thunderstorm arose, preventing Benedict from leaving.

"I asked a favour of you, and you refused it.
I asked it of God, and He has granted it!"

St. Gregory the Great comments that her prayer was answered because it was in line with the charity of God: that the love of a sister for her brother overcame the law of Benedict's rule.

That was their last meeting. Three days later, Benedict saw his sister in a vision, "ascending to heaven in the form of a dove." He had her remains brought to his monastery to be buried there.
