Hurricane Relief Collection

Bishop Schlert has authorized a collection to be taken up in the parishes in the Diocese of Allentown during the month of October for hurricane damage across the Southeastern Region of the United States of America. In addition to the lives lost, the storms have left large areas in utter destruction which will take months, if not years, to rebuild. If you would like to help support his relief collection, please use the envelopes at the ends of the pews, at the entrances and at the Service Desk the weekend of October 26 - 27.

Friendship Hall

St. Margaret Mary died in 1690 and was canonized in 1920. Through her, our Lord reminds us of the enormity of his mercy. His Sacred Heart is a symbol of His untiring love and mercy for us. Through St Margaret Mary devotion to our Lord's Sacred Heart spread. Indeed making a Holy Hour, the observance of the First Friday Devotions all flow from her.

The Feast of the Sacred Heart was placed on the Church's calendar in 1856.

Sacred Heart's Tricky Tray 2024

SAVE THE DATE 12/7 & 12/8

The flyers were mailed last week to all parishioners; you can use them for all things Tricky Tray – to order tickets, volunteer, donate gifts, bake. The requests for pre-ordered tickets can be dropped in the collection baskets, at the Service Desk or mailed to the Parish Office. Your donated gifts can be taken to the stage at Fr. King Hall, or left at the Service Desk.

As always, volunteers are needed in all areas for both days of the event.

This is going to be another fun, successful fundraiser for Sacred Heart!!
