Holy Name Society Fellowship Breakfast Update

On behalf of my brothers of the Sacred Heart Holy Name Society, I want to thank all the Parishioners, their families and friends and the other Diocesan attendees who attended our Fellowship Breakfast on Sunday, October 20. We continue to be successful as a result of your active participation. Based on the comments received after the 10:00am Mass from the Quality Assurance ladies of Sacred Heart the fruit salad appears to have received their thumbs up. Thank you, ladies. Also, there were multiple requests on where we source our delicious bacon. The bacon is purchased from B&M Provisions, 1040 N. Graham St., Allentown, Pa. Also, congratulations to Jack Shive our 50/50 winner. It is unclear when our next Fellowship Breakfast will be because of the upcoming renovations in our Church basement. When we receive news we'll let you know. Again, thanks for your continued support.

Alex Dezubay, President of the Sacred Heart Holy Name Society.

Since 1985, when it was known as Center City Ministries, Victory House of Lehigh Valley has been providing shelter and transitional services to homeless men, many who have been homeless veterans.

Today, after 35+ years of service, nearly 4,000 men have benefitted from the transitional programs at Victory House, enabling them to regain the unity of family life in the community
