Greetings (Boozhoo Aaniin)

As you read this, I will be in the middle of the annual priest retreat! By Canon Law, priests need to take a canonical retreat every year. In our diocese, every other year, the Diocese of Duluth hosts a diocesan retreat, and the off years each priest is reliable to find their own retreat.

Retreats are a great time to retreat from the busyness of the world to spend some time with God. These retreats are five days, they can be silent retreats where a priest does not speak at all, there are also retreats where one can talk, there are five, eight, and even thirty-day silent retreat days! I have not done a thirty-day silent retreat yet, and I still think I would like to do one. I believe Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit requires their seminarians to do a thirty-day retreat in early summer (I went to St. Paul Seminary). Maybe you're wondering why Fr. KK is not joining us at the priest retreat. Since he belongs to a religious life, he went back to India to take his retreat with his brother priests, so he doesn't join us.

Lastly, did you know that retreat centers offer short weekend retreats for the laity? These retreats focus on a laity life to help laity to grow in their relationship with Jesus. There are many laity retreats that focus on many aspects of life, and the Diocese of Duluth does offer a retreat right next door to us in Cohasset at Sugar Lake Lodge. This retreat is called Restored, and it is for adults 21 and over! I really encourage all parishioners to do this retreat at some point, and I must warn everyone that after doing this retreat, most will want to go again. There is also another retreat that the diocese hosts and that is a family retreat. This is usually held on the weekend between Week One and Two of Camp Survive.

Retreats are such a beautiful way for all of us to retreat from the busyness and craziness of the world to be with God! I would be more than happy to speak to anyone who wants more information on retreats!

God Bless ~ Fr. Trevor

Classes will be in session February 12th
 Elementary: 2:35 - 4:00 pm
 Confirmation: 4:30 - 5:30 pm

This week our Gospel reading is Jesus calling Peter, James and John to be his disciples. I am always in awe when I hear Simon Peter say "but at your word, I will let down my nets." To have such faith and trust is incredible and reminds us to have the same faith and trust in Jesus ourselves. Check out a video to help your children understand this weeks Gospel reading.
