Greetings (Boozhoo Aaniin)!

I want to wish all the fathers (including spiritual fathers) a happy Father's Day! We now entered Ordinary Time in the Liturgical Season! We will begin to hear in scriptures Jesus on mission, and how Jesus sends us on Mission to convert the world. Of course, we ourselves cannot convert any heart, only God does that. However, God works through each of us as he always worked through everyone since Adam and Eve. Furthermore, to go out on mission, we need to be formed as Christians, and who forms us? Mother Church does. This year, our parishes will be pumping a lot of energy into our faith formation (i.e., religious ed), both youth and adult. We cannot expect the faithful to go out on mission without being properly formed in the Catholic faith. Being formed does not mean that a person will know everything, but it will help build the confidence in both becoming an active missionary and with our personal relationship with God. One kink in this is that it takes money to run a strong faith formation program. One of the ways to tackle this is to hold fundraisers to help with the costs.

As you may know, we will be holding a fundraiser event for the faith formation department for Saint Mary's/Saint Joseph's parishes at the Wild Rice Festival on July 11th - 13th. We are about to order the 30'X30' tent, Rick is going out to businesses to see if they are willing to donate, we are gathering items and food to sell. We are now looking forward to having this event on Friday, July 11th, and Saturday, July 12th! We are looking for bakery goods to sell, volunteers to help out (I am expecting students to volunteer), hoping to have one-man bands to come and play live music (if none, then Spotify music), drawings for gift cards, and selling food to eat including soft served ice cream (root beer floats)! We are so excited to put this event on and really hoping and praying that we will come together as a community to volunteer at this special event!

The annual Turkey Dinner on Sunday, July 13th, hosted by the CCW is still on, and I would bet that they would like to have volunteers to help! Please let us know if you are interested in helping the CCW with this great event!

I am excited about the summer events that will be happening at our parishes! For St. Charles in Cass Lake, I am hoping that we will get some city-wide events going this summer and Fall!

God bless,

Father Trevor
