A Continuation of the Pastoral Letter

THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS AT HAND, BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS! (MARK 1:15)

What is that good news? We are not left on our own. If the Holy Spirit is the agent calling us to mission, then we must pray to the Holy Spirit to make the impossible happen, to let go of everything and everyone but Jesus. Self-reliance often keeps us from detachment, as well as a fear of giving up who and what I have and being not sure of what I will gain by going all in. And like the young man, Jesus looks at us with love and says, "You are lacking one thing, go, and give up this one thing and come and follow me." Only with detachment do we realize that all of these somethings and someones that I am clinging to will never be the fullness of the Kingdom of God and the divine healing, hope and joy that I have in Jesus. Finally, when it comes to the mission of proclaiming Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God that is at hand, Jesus often uses parables. The purpose of a parable is to draw people into a predictable story and change the ending, leaving them shocked and bewildered. In doing so, Jesus seeks to turn lives upside down, to stand them on their heads, so that they might see the Kingdom of God from a different perspective. For instance, the parable of the shepherd and the lost sheep would have left people shaking their heads and thinking no shepherd would ever leave the ninety-nine sheep to go looking for the one lost sheep. But Jesus concludes that He as the Good Shepherd is that passionate about looking for those who are lost, least and last in the world. And as crazy as it looks, as disciples of that Good Shepherd, our mission is to the lost, least and last in the communities in which we live. The parabolic nature of this dawning moment turns our sense of mission upside down, so that we may see our mission from the perspective of Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God, perhaps for the first time in a long time. As we now move to defining the Vision, Mission, Values and Mission Initiatives of the new dawn from on high breaking upon us in our diocese, get ready to do a head stand!

Catholic Faith Formation from the Saints

The Catholic Church emphasizes the importance of faith formation from the saints as a means of deepening one's understanding of the faith and living it out in community. The saints are seen as "Partners in Faith," and children learn about them at various lesson, unit, and grade levels. This learning helps them follow the example of the saints in their own lives. The Church encourages families, parishes, and clergy to support this early start in faith formation, ensuring that children develop a sense of right and wrong based on Catholic moral teachings. "But no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly Poison. With it we bless the Father, and with it we curse human beings who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. This need not be so, my brothers." -James 3:8-10
