GENERAL MISSION STRATEGIES
Personal Mission Field: You Can Do This!

As stated above, our mission field can be as far away as a foreign country or as close as the person in front of me. In both these circumstances, I am called as a disciple on mission to give witness to others of my deep conviction that in Jesus Christ alone we will know the truth, beauty and goodness of His healing, hope and joy. As St. Pope John Paul II reminds us, "this mission does not only involve Church professionals, such as priests and religious ... but all baptized Christians must commit themselves to evangelization, cooperating with the work of the Holy Spirit in the minds and hearts of all people" (1998 ad Limina Address to Bishop of the United States). All baptized Christians are called to be disciples on mission who accompany one another to an encounter with Jesus. This can be as simple as learning how to pray aloud with the one in front of me who has asked for my prayers, a simple prayer to the Holy Spirit inviting Jesus to bring His healing, hope and joy in response to the specific prayer request. Yes, missionary discipleship is that simple ... and that challenging. As pointed out by St. Pope John Paul II, often we think that this kind of Jesus encounter and accompaniment is for priests, deacons and religious, that left on our own, this praying out loud with the person in front of me or in a foreign land is an impossible task. But we must remember, our prayer and witness as disciples on mission are the actions of the Holy Spirit working through us and in the minds and hearts of all people standing in front of us. Missionary discipleship is not about us, but rather what the Holy Spirit of Jesus wants to do in and through us! This understanding of missionary discipleship and the mission field is personal, unique and spontaneous: Personal in my discernment of how the Holy Spirit is moving in my life; unique in that these choices are specific to me and the person in front of me or the call to me; and they are spontaneous, especially with regard to the person in front of me or the call before me, which many times is a mission field unplanned or not expected in that moment. At the same time, there is also a missionary discipleship and mission field which is communal, local & intentional.

"Who is going to save the church?"

Not our bishops, not our priests or religious. It is up to you, the people. You have the minds, the eyes, and the ears to save the church. Your mission is to see that the priests act like priests, bishops act like bishops and religious act like religious."

Hello everyone! We have had two classes now and the new curriculum, Word of Life, has been wonderful. The students really like looking at the sacred art and the stories to help them understand what is being taught. If you haven't found your email from Word of Life to set up your Parent Portal, please check your SPAM or JUNK folder just in case it was sent there. If you can't find it anywhere, please let me know and I will resend it. The Parent Portal is a great way for you to not only see what your child is learning but to grow and learn yourself. I don't know about you but I am constantly learning new things about God and about the Catholic Church. Lastly, there will be no class this coming Wednesday, October 15th because of MEA weekend. Enjoy the long weekend!

You are invited to a Presentation on
Monsignor Joseph Buh
 A MISSIONARY PRIEST FOR A MISSIONARY TIME

Thurs. Oct. 23rd
Blessed Sacrament Church
6:30PM in St. Leo's Hall

Please join us along with Fr. Rich Kunst for an evening engaging the life story of Monsignor Joseph Buh, a possible candidate for sainthood from the Diocese of Duluth! Fr. Rich Kunst, a priest of the Diocese of Duluth, long-time columnist in the Northern Cross, and leader in spreading the story of Fr. Buh, will be here to share the inspiring details and have a time for questions about Buh's life and the effort to consider him for sainthood.

Fr. Rich will have some items Msgr. Buh used in his missionary life (ie potential relics), possibly including one of his little calendar books, traveling stole, and the Roman collar which was found still intact when Msgr. Buh's remains were exhumed last summer.

It's that time of season again.
