From Father Walling: Sunday Evening Masses in the Family

Sunday evening Mass AT SEVEN O'CLOCK will be offered on the FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH on a trial basis to gauge response to and participation at Sunday Mass at that hour. AT SAINT PETER IN CHAINS ON AUGUST 4TH AND NOVEMBER 3RD. AT SAINT ALOYSIUS ON SEPTEMBER 1ST, OCTOBER 6TH AND DECEMBER 1ST. Liturgical ministers will be needed: greeters/ushers, servers, lectors, extraordinary ministers of holy communion. If you are interested in helping, contact Heather Hart at Saint Pete's or Ann Shackelford at Saint Al's.

From Father Walling: Additional Sunday (Saturday Evening) Mass in Spanish Upcoming

After consulting with members of the Hispanic community at Saint Julie Billiard as well as with parish council members at Saint Joseph, I have decided to offer a second Sunday Mass in Spanish, beginning August 31st. It will take place at Saint Joseph and start at six o'clock on Saturday evenings.

From Father Walling: Beacons of Light Update

Back in December I shared with you my appointment of Sally Nieman (Director of Administration), Chad Riegert (Director of Operations) and Pam Long (Director of Love in Action) as members of our Beacons of Light Family Leadership Team (FLT), tasked with oversight, communication and coordination in those respective areas. I am happy to announce the completion of the FLT with the appointment of Cheryl Hunt as Director of Faith Formation and Ben Wainscott as Director of Evangelization and Stewardship. Cheryl is a Queen of Peace parishioner and has been a long-time classroom teacher and catechetical leader there. Ben is a member of Saint Gertrude Parish in Cincinnati, a graduate of McNicholas High School and the University of Notre Dame, and has worked most recently as a staff member of Damascus Catholic Camp, northeast of Columbus. I am confident that Cheryl and Ben, as well as Sally, Chad and Pam will contribute greatly to the health and vitality of our five parishes. They bring a diversity of gifts, strengths and attributes to their respective ministries. Our Saint Stephen FLT will meet regularly, reporting directly to me while also working with and supervising other staff and volunteers. Pray for them (and me) as we strive to help all of you live the joy of the Gospel!

Family Promise is returning to St. Stephen's Family of Parishes on August 18. What is Family Promise, did you say? Family Promise is a non-profit social service formed to help children and families who are homeless in Butler County, by providing meals, shelter, and comprehensive support services. Dot's House, located at St. Julie's and served by all St. Stephen's parishes, is one of the 9 churches serving Butler County Family Promise. We host 3-5 homeless families, 4 times per year, one week at a time. All our guests have been screened making for a safe environment for all the families and volunteers.

Needed to sustain the program are volunteers to: grocery shop, setup, teardown, serve on a Meal Team, serve as an Activity Leader, do laundry, or serve as an Overnight Leader. We are especially in need of Overnight Leaders and Saturday night Meal Team members.

If you are interested in joining ANY of our teams, contact Rosemary Gebhart at gebhart_r@hotmail.com or call 513-708-0261 for more information.

Thank you for RTL Candy donations

Blessings to all who donated candy in support of the Butler County Fair Right to Life Booth!! The offer of candy helped us spread beautiful pro-life information to many hundreds of fairgoers who stopped by our booth. Interactive displays of fetal development, as well as info for pregnancy care for women facing an unexpected pregnancy were at hand. Candy enticed especially the many teens and young adults to see and hear our message: Life is precious, from conception to natural death.

Mass Moments

Lamb of God

At first glance, lambs and bread have less in common than buffaloes and wings. Yet when the liturgy describes the "Breaking of the Bread," it calls for the singing of the "Lamb of God."

John the Baptist first used the expression when he pointed out Jesus to some of his own disciples (John 1:29). John recognizes Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. He draws the image from other passages of Scripture. On the night the devastating angel delivered ancient Israel from the hands of the enemy, God's faithful people sacrificed a lamb and sprinkled its blood on their doorposts (Exodus 12:3, 7). Many generations later, when Israel found itself in bondage again, Isaiah compared God's suffering servant to a lamb that is led to the slaughter (Isaiah 53:7). After the Resurrection, the Book of Revelation records a vision of a lamb standing, paradoxically, as if it had been slaughtered (Revelation 5:6).

John the Baptist saw Jesus as the sacrifice, the risen one, the deliverer. We recall this image of Christ, the Lamb of God, just before Communion. Breaking bread and pouring wine are moments of sacrifice in our Mass. In these reverent actions, Christ, the sacrificial victim, is broken and poured out. "Lamb" and "bread" go together because the bread and the wine have become Christ, the lamb, who was sacrificed, and whose saving mystery we celebrate at Mass.

The breaking and pouring serve other purposes as well: They underscore the unity that we share in this Communion. We will become one by sharing of the one bread and one cup. They also serve a functional role, dividing the sacrifice so many may partake.

When we use individual hosts for bread, we lose some of this symbolism, because the bread has essentially been broken prior to the Mass. One reason the priest breaks a large host in such circumstances is to share the pieces with some in the community to preserve the symbolic unity of the sacrifice.

Still, the Lamb of God rings out in our churches to alert the faithful that the breaking of the bread calls us to follow Christ by our Communion, through sacrifice and into glory.

Family Promise at Dot's House

St. Julie, St. Joe, and St. Pete participate in Family Promise, a non-profit social service formed to address the needs of children and families who are homeless in Butler County by providing meals, shelter and comfort services. "Dot's House" on the property of St. Julie's is named for Sr. Dorothy Stang from Dayton who was martyred serving the needs of the poor in Central America. They host 3-5 homeless families, 4 times a year, one week at a time. All guests have been screened making for a safe environment for all the families and volunteers. This effort returns to Dot's House on August 18th and volunteers are needed. If you would be interested in joining one of their teams, contact Rosemary Gebhart at gebhart_r@hotmail.com or 513-708-0261, for more information.

St. Aloysius Funeral Planning Resource

St. Aloysius has a funeral planning booklet available to help those who are in urgent need, and also for those who would like to pre-plan their funeral Mass. The booklet contains selected readings from the Rite of Christian Funerals, as well as choices for Responsorial Psalms, petitions, and songs. A planning sheet provides spaces to record your wishes. Please call the parish office if you would like a copy.

No Festival Sunday

Our No Festival Sunday is today. If it slipped your mind, you can always return your No Festival envelope next Sunday. This is an important annual fundraiser for our parish. Thank you all for your contributions!

August Devotion - Immaculate Heart of Mary

The month of August is dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The physical heart of Mary is venerated (and not adored as the Sacred Heart of Jesus is) because it is united to her person and is the seat of her love (especially for her divine Son), virtue, and inner life. There are many devotional prayers to our Blessed Mother. Here is the Memorare: Nice to recite each morning or evening this month.

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer for Vacation Travels

Our patron saint, St. Joseph, holds special significance for travelers in Catholic tradition. As the earthly father of Jesus and the husband of Mary, he is revered as a protector and intercessor. Here is a prayer for families as we embark on vacations this summer:

"St. Joseph, guardian of the Holy Family and patron of travelers, we entrust our journey to your care. Watch over us as we set forth, protect us from harm, and guide us safely to our destination. May our travels be filled with grace, and may we return home with hearts full of gratitude. Amen."

St. Vincent de Paul

The Gospel tells us "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." By "listening" we are able to live the gospel. Gospel living is something so simple as taking the time to listen to those who need to spill out their hearts when seeking help.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you enable the members of the Society to become a "listening heart" to the hungry, the homeless and the struggling poor.

Sunday Evening Mass - St. Peter's - Tonight!

Tonight is a Sunday evening Mass at St. Peter's at 7:00 PM. For now, the Sunday evening Mass will be on the first Sunday of the month rotating between St. Peter's and St. Al's.

Serve as a Sacristan

Can you help "set the table" for the celebration of the Mass? We need sacristans for both the 5:30 Mass and the 10:00 Mass on Sunday. If you regularly attend either Mass and would be willing to help, please let us know. It takes about 30 minutes before Mass and 10 minutes after Mass. Training would be provided. We are also looking for those interested in washing/ironing the "Heavenly Laundry," the linens used during the Mass. If you would like additional information to fully understand the ministry, please contact Heather Hart at 513-863-3938 or email harth@stpeterinchains.org.

Saint Peter in Chains would like to offer a parish religious education program (PREP)

This program's mission is to educate children about Jesus, the Catholic faith and prepare children to fully participate in adult spiritual life. Children will be provided with a secure foundation to receive the sacraments of Penance (confession), the Eucharist (Holy Communion), and Confirmation. BUT we need your help.

First, we would like to gather the following information from you:

- are you interested in a program
- what day/time of the week works the best for you
- are you interested in helping in any way.

Please take this short survey so that we will best know how to proceed.

Mensaje del Padre Walling: Misas Vespertinas de Domingo Familiar

Se celebrará una misa a las 7:00pm, el Primer Domingo de cada mes. Estaremos viendo cuantas personas asisten y participan en estas misas dominicales. En SAN PEDRO EN CADENAS se celebrará el 4 de agosto y 3 de noviembre. EN SAN ALOYSIUS se celebrará el 1 de septiembre, 6 de octubre y 1º. De diciembre. Por lo cual se necesitarán ministros litúrgicos: ujieres, monaguillos, lectores, ministros extraordinarios de la sagrada comunión. Si está interesado en ayudar, comuníquese con Heather Hart en San Pedro o Ann Shackleford en San Aloysius.

Mensaje del Padre Walling: Muy Pronto Tendremos una Misa Adicional en Español del Domingo (Sábado por la Tarde)

Después de consultar con miembros de la comunidad hispana en Santa Julia Billiart, así como con los miembros del consejo parroquial en San José, he decidido ofrecer una segunda misa dominical en español, a partir del 31 de agosto. Se celebrará en la iglesia de San José en punto de las 6:00pm todos los sábados.

Mensaje del Padre Walling: Actualización de Faros de Luz

El pasado diciembre compartí con ustedes el nombramiento de: Sally Nieman (Directora de Administración), Chad Riegert (Director de Operaciones) y Pam Long (Directora de Amor en Acción) como miembros de nuestro Equipo de Liderazgo Familiar (ELF) de Faros de Luz, encargados de la supervisión, comunicación y coordinación en esas áreas respectivas. Me complace anunciar la finalización del ELF con el nombramiento de Cheryl Hunt como Directora de Formación en la Fe y Ben Wainscott como Director de Evangelización y Corresponsabilidad. Cheryl es feligresa de la Reina de la Paz y ha sido maestra de aula y líder catequético allí durante mucho tiempo. Ben es miembro de la Parroquia Santa Gertrudis en Cincinnati, se graduó de la Escuela Secundaria McNicholas y de la Universidad de Notre Dame, y ha trabajado más recientemente como miembro del personal del Campamento Católico de Damasco, al noreste de Columbus. Estoy Seguro de que Cheryl y Ben, así como Sally, Chad y Pam, contribuirán en gran medida a la salud y vitalidad de nuestras cinco parroquias. Aportan una diversidad de dones, fortalezas y atributos a sus respectivos ministerios. Nuestro ELF de San Esteban se reunirá periódicamente, reportándose directamente a mí y al mismo tiempo trabajando con y supervisando a otros miembros del personal y voluntarios. ¡Oren por ellos (y por mí) mientras nos esforzamos por ayudarlos a todos a vivir la alegría del Evangelio!

XVII Semana del tiempo ordinario 2 Reyes 4, 42-44;

Salmo 144; Efesio 4, 1-6; Juan 6, 1-15

La Parroquia Santa Julia Billiart es una comunidad urbana Católica-Romana, situada en la ciudad de Hamilton, Ohio. Santa Julia acoge la diversidad de todos aquellos que buscan formar parte del cuerpo de Cristo. Nos congregamos para alabar a nuestro Señor y celebrar Su misericordia divina. Aspiramos a construir el Reino de Dios a través de la oración, el servicio social, la educación y la confraternidad.

Preguntas de la Semana:

Pregunta para niños: ¿Cómo sería recibir pan del cielo?

Pregunta para los jóvenes: ¿Cómo puedes deshacerte del viejo yo de tu forma de vida anterior?

Pregunta para adultos: ¿Qué puedes hacer para realizar las obras de Dios después de comer el pan de vida?

La Recepción de la Sagrada Comunión en la Misa (Información tomada del website de la USCCB)

Sin embargo, algunas personas consideran que cantar este himno es una intromisión en su propia oración, su propia acción de gracias privada después de la Comunión. Sin embargo, este himno es oración, la oración de acción gracias comunitaria de los miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo, mutuamente unidos. Una y otra vez, las plegarias litúrgicas y las normas de la Instrucción General enfatizan este concepto fundamental de la unidad de los bautizados, resaltando que cuando nos reunimos para participar en la celebración Eucarística, venimos no como individuos sino como miembros unidos del Cuerpo de Cristo.

En cada una de las Plegarias Eucarísticas, aunque la petición se presenta con pequeñas diferencias, se le pide a Dios que envíe Su Espíritu Santo para hacernos un solo cuerpo, un solo Espíritu; la Instrucción General invita a los fieles a que "actúen, pues, como un solo cuerpo tanto al escuchar la Palabra de Dios, como al tomar parte en las oraciones y en los cantos y, en especial, al ofrecer comunitariamente el sacrificio y al participar todos juntos en la mesa del Señor" (IGMR # 96), describe como uno de los propósitos del canto de entrada a la Misa intensifica la unión de los que se han reunido 3. Del Cántico de Comunión dice que su función es expresar abiertamente la unión espiritual de los comulgantes por medio de la unidad de sus voces, y de resaltar el carácter comunitario de la Procesión de Comunión 4.

Para algunos de nosotros es difícil aceptar esta insistencia en que la Misa es la acción de una comunidad en lugar de un acto individual de nuestra propia fe y piedad; sin embargo, es importante que hagamos todo lo que esté a nuestro alcance para que así sea. El propio Cristo en la última Cena le imploró a Su Padre: "Padre Santo, cuida en tu nombre a los que me has dado... para que todos sean uno. Como tú, Padre, en mí y yo en ti, que ellos también sean uno en nosotros, para que el mundo crea que tú me has enviado"(Juan 17:11b; 21) 5. El Bautismo nos ha unido a Cristo y a nuestro prójimo como la vid a sus ramas. La vida de Cristo, el Espíritu Santo, nos anima a cada uno de nosotros de manera individual y a todos colectivamente y guía nuestros esfuerzos por llegar a ser uno en Cristo.

Finalmente, el hecho de que la Procesión de Comunión es una acción profundamente religiosa nos dice algo sobre la manera en que debemos participar en esta procesión. Somos el Cuerpo de Cristo, avanzando para recibir a Cristo que nos hace uno con Él mismo y con nuestro prójimo. Nuestra procesión debe avanzar con dignidad; ¡nuestro comportamiento debe ser como el de aquéllos que saben que han sido redimidos por Cristo y que están viniendo a recibir a su Dios!
