From Fr. Walling: Sunday Evening Masses in the Family

Sunday evening Mass AT SEVEN O'CLOCK will be offered on the FIRST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH on a trial basis to gauge response to and participation at Sunday Mass at that hour. AT SAINT PETER IN CHAINS ON NOVEMBER 3RD. AT SAINT ALOYSIUS ON OCTOBER 6TH AND DECEMBER 1ST. Liturgical ministers will be needed: greeters/ushers, servers, lectors, extraordinary ministers of holy communion. If you are interested in helping, contact Heather Hart at Saint Pete's or Ann Shackleford at Saint Al's.

From Fr. Walling

It is important that the Catholic faithful continue to recognize the life and dignity of every human person, avoid objectifying others, and join with those working diligently every day for a better future for the marginalized in our society. Please refer to Archbishop Schnurr's previous statement issued March 4, 2024, (in English and Spanish) accessible via this link: <https://catholicaoc.org/news/from-the-archbishop/letter-to-the-faithful-regarding-migrants-and-refugees>

The Common Good

In the second reading today, we learn:

"You covet but do not possess.
You kill and envy but you cannot obtain;
you fight and wage war.
You do not possess because you do not ask.
You ask but do not receive,
because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions."
James 4:2-3

In order for all of us to have an opportunity to grow and develop fully, a certain social fabric must exist within society. This is the common good. Numerous social conditions — economic, political, material and cultural — impact our ability to realize our human dignity and reach our full potential.

This is part of a series developed by the Archdiocese to help Catholics understand the connection between the Gospel and our love of neighbor particularly at election time.

Family News

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's Gospel Jesus called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will help hungry children feel the arms of Jesus around them.

Attention All Voters:

Are You Registered to Vote?

Members of the Outreach Committee will help St. Stephen Family Parishioners check to see if they are registered to vote after Masses in September. 20th Annual Blue Mass Celebration

Sunday, September 29, 2024 - Blessing 10:45 A.M. followed by Mass at 11 A.M. Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains: 325 W. 8th St., Cincinnati OH

A Blessing and Mass for those who Protect the Community

Reverend Steve Angi, Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and Police Chaplain, will celebrate a Mass to honor those who protect our community each day. An outdoor blessing of first response vehicles will take place outside the Cathedral Basilica along 8th and Plum Street beginning at 10:45 A.M. This will be followed by Mass at 11 A.M.. Both Greater Cincinnati Police and Public Safety Personnel are expected to be in attendance. People of all faiths are invited to join in prayer for the men and women who work tirelessly to ensure safe communities. Refreshment and fellowship will follow Mass.

The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Cincinnati is the 45th largest Catholic diocese in the country, with nearly 440,000 Catholics, and has the fifth largest Catholic school system in terms of enrollment with more than 40,000 students. The 19-county territory includes 199 canonical parishes organized into 57 Families of Parishes, and 108 Catholic primary and secondary schools.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekends are planned in our area on October 11-13, at the Holy Spirit Center in Norwood, Ohio, and November 3-5 at the Spiritual Center at Maria Stein. This special weekend will help you rediscover the joy you and your spouse had when you were first married and also help you learn how to make the most of your time and relationship.

Mass Moments

Bow Down for the Blessing

You may bow to receive a blessing at the end of Mass. The words asking you to do so have been slightly revised. In the past, the deacon or priest has said words such as these: "Bow your heads and pray for God's blessing." Now, however, you hear this formula: "Bow down for the blessing."

The Final Blessing does not always include this invitation. You hear it only when the blessing is extended in one of two ways. In a Solemn Blessing, the priest offers a threefold formula addressed to the people, who answer "Amen" to each part. In a Prayer over the People, the priest addresses God, concluding with the phrase "Through Christ our Lord," which prompts the people to answer "Amen".

If either extension is made, you are invited to bow before it, and you receive the usual blessing after it: "May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit." The deacon issues this invitation because he instructs the people concerning their actions, whether to share the Sign of Peace or to be dismissed from the gathering. He may also assign postures such as kneeling, standing, and bowing. In the deacon's absence, the priest performs this function.

The revised English translation of the Mass has changed the words to reflect the invitation in Latin, which makes no mention of the head, and instead implies a low bow of the upper part of the body.

The third edition of The Roman Missal has removed the permission for the priest or deacon to use other expressions, thus restricting him to one formula: "Bow down for the blessing."

Ironically, the rubrics of the Mass never instruct the people to carry out this posture, but the implication, of course, is that they do.

Attention Ladies!

The women of The Rosary Altar Society of St. Peter's have decided to make some exciting changes! Moving forward, we will be called The Ladies Group of St. Stephen.

That name will be shortened to The Ladies Group for bulletin notices moving forward. We acknowledge, deeply respect & encourage continued participation in other existing & active ladies' groups throughout the St. Stephen family. Our name change is meant to communicate that we are opening up membership and/or attendance to all parishioners throughout our family of parishes. All ladies are welcome to attend our meetings! This is another great opportunity to meet & enjoy fellowship with wonderful Catholic women. In the spirit of bringing our parishes together, we invite other women's group members to join us for some fun. We all share the similar values & look forward to meeting and hosting new friends!

We meet the first Thursday of October, December, February and April in the St. Peter's cafeteria beginning at 6:00 p.m. We begin with the Rosary, eat a home cooked meal and then hold our business meeting. After the meeting, we either play a game or have a guest speaker. At the end of the evening, we pass out door prizes, combination prizes and split the pot tickets are drawn.

Please consider joining us on October 3rd at 6:00 p.m. entering the cafeteria through the back of the school building.

*We will be collecting donations for St. Vincent De Paul – canned chicken noodle or tomato soup, spaghetti sauce and spaghetti noodles and Ritz crackers.

We hope to see you there!

Planificación Familiar Natural

El corazón del matrimonio es el Amor de Dios. El amor conyugal es libre, fiel, total y fecundo, abierto a la vida (ver Gaudium Et Spes, 49–50; Humanae Vitae, 9; Amoris Laetitia, 74, 125). El amor conyugal une a marido y mujer para que lleguen a ser “una sola carne” (Gn. 2:24).

Fue entre los brazos de esposo y esposa en donde Dios deseó que se creara el ambiente perfecto para recibir una nueva vida al mundo. ¡El matrimonio crea la familia!

Preguntas de la Semana

Por: Pam Long

Preguntas para niños: ¿Cuándo ha escuchado Dios tu oración y te ha ayudado?

Pregunta para jóvenes: ¿Cómo encuentras la sabiduría? ¿Es “ante todo pura, después pacífica, amable, dócil, llena de misericordia y de buenos frutos, sin inconstancia ni hipocresía?”

Pregunta para adultos: ¿Cómo gastas tu dinero en tus pasiones? o ¿Cómo gastas en tus pasiones?

XI Semana del tiempo ordinario Exodo 19, 2-6; Salmo 99; Romanos 5, 6-11; Mateo 9, 36-10, 8
