St. Vincent de Paul - 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel Jesus said to his disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it be accomplished!"

Your gift to the Society to assist those suffering in poverty will help set the earth on fire with God's love.

Notre Dame Tabernacle Society Seeking New Location

The Notre Dame Tabernacle was founded by Hamilton native, Alma Stuhlmuehler in 1942. Our mission is to sew vestments for priests in India, Ghana, Malawi, Nigeria, South Sudan, Tanzania, and Uganda in Africa. We have been meeting for 19 years at the home of Mark and Joan Krabbe on Sir Edward Dr. We occupy approx. 1500 sq. ft. in their basement. (the house was built primarily to house our group). Joan is getting older, 87, and would like for us to find a new permanent place to meet. We can't pay rent or utilities as we rely solely on donations which go for fabric, rosary supplies, Mass kits, etc. Our postage is currently being paid by Queen of Peace and St. Maximillian Kolbe sometimes gifts us with the donations from their outreach program. We are so grateful for this. Does anyone have a building we can use for sewing and you can use for a tax benefit? We don't want this ministry to fall apart. If ANYONE can help us please contact Andrea Benson at 513-867-1497 or bensona1945@yahoo.com.

Catholic Elements of Immigration Reform

Leading up to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' observance of National Migration Week, Sept. 22-28, our St. Stephen Family will learn what our faith teaches about the Catholic Elements of Immigration Reform.

"What is clearly true, and what the Church and many others have called for, is the urgent need for a comprehensive reform of our country's immigration system. The U.S. immigration system is overly complex and unjust, often keeping family members apart; it must be fixed."

—Statement of the USCCB Administrative Committee (March 17, 2022)

For decades, the Catholic bishops of the United States have been consistent and steadfast in their calls for a just reform of the nation's immigration system. The elements of reform articulated below are grounded in Catholic social teaching generally and the Church's teaching on migration specifically, including the joint pastoral letter released by the American and Mexican bishops, Strangers No Longer: Together on the Journey of Hope (2003).

Element 1: Enforcement efforts should be targeted, proportional, and humane

Safeguarding American communities and upholding the rule of law are laudable goals. At the same time, a country's rights to regulate its borders and enforce its immigration laws must be balanced with its responsibilities to uphold the sanctity of human life, respect the God-given dignity of all persons, and enact policies that further the common good. Whether along an international border or in the interior of the country, enforcement measures should focus on those who present genuine risks and dangers to society, particularly efforts to reduce gang activity, stem the flow of drugs, and end human trafficking. Just enforcement also requires limiting the use of detention, especially for families, children, pregnant women, the sick, elderly, and disabled, given its proven harms and the pervasive lack of appropriate care in detention settings. Military personnel, resources, and tactics should not be used in immigration enforcement. Deportations and other enforcement actions should always be carried out with due regard for families, community ties, and religious liberty interests.
