Live your Discipleship

It seems strange to me, but the annual Shopping and End of Year craziness is clearly here. Otherwise normal people – who have survived everything else our world has thrown at them this year - are clearly anxious &/or agitated. Now why would you think that I am writing about myself?

How do we avoid being overwhelmed by the annual craziness? St. Paul reminds us, keep the main thing the main thing. Focus on God.

Psalm 124:8 tells us that “Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.” That is what matters, not somehow shoehorning one more thing into our schedules.

And for you hunters, if you somehow manage to spend some time relaxing afield this week, may St. Hubert (Patron Saint of Hunters) keep you safe, and remind you to go to Mass. God Bless You.

Deacon Dave

DIOCESE OF GREEN BAY VOCATIONS

Answer God's Call

Discern Religious Life

"Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."
(Luke 23:42)

Reflect with your children on what it means to let Christ reign in their lives. Talk about how serving in His kingdom, whether in priesthood, consecrated life, or sacramental marriage, is a gift to the whole community. Help them see that answering God's call—whatever it may be—is a way to spread His love and strengthen His kingdom here on earth. Talk to our deacons and priest or contact Rev. Mark Mleziva at the Diocese of Green Bay Vocation Office (920) 272-8293 or via his email: MMleziva@gbdioc.org for
