January 12: The Baptism of the Lord

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.” As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words.

As you help those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words “you are my beloved in whom I am well pleased”.

Heat and Evangelization Donation Envelopes

The heat donation envelopes for Our Lady of Peace and the evangelization envelopes for St. Kevin were accidentally omitted from the 2025 donation boxes. To ensure everyone has access, these envelopes will be inserted into the bulletin on the first Sunday of each month.

Please include your full name and your new envelope box number on each envelope to ensure proper credit for income tax purposes. If you do not plan to use these envelopes, kindly return them to the church. Loose envelopes will also be available on the table at the back of both worship sites.

Thank you for your understanding and your continued support of these important parish needs.

Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, marking the conclusion of the Christmas season. This feast invites us to reflect on the humility of Jesus, who allowed Himself to be baptized by John in the Jordan River. Though He was without sin, Jesus identified with us, embracing our humanity and beginning His public ministry.

In His baptism, the heavens opened, the Spirit descended like a dove, and the voice of the Father proclaimed, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17). As we renew our commitment to our own baptismal promises, let us ask for the grace to live as beloved children of God, bringing His light and love into the world.

May this feast remind us of our shared mission to serve one another with humility and to follow Christ in faith and love.
