

MATTERS PERTAINING TO PRIESTS/SEMINARIANS

XIII. Placement of Seminarians in the Diocese

- A. All seminarians should spend at least one summer in pastoral ministry in a parish of the Diocese of Crookston before being ordained to the Diaconate. More summers or longer periods of service may be useful in individual cases to be determined by the Bishop and the Vocation Director in cooperation with the individual seminarian. Exceptions to this policy are at the discretion of the Bishop.
- B. Placement of seminarians is the responsibility of the Vocation Director in cooperation with the priests of the Diocese. The Bishop has final approval of such placements.
- C. Financial arrangements for summer work by seminarians are described in Section XIII below (cf. "J" for both "theologians" and "collegiate seminarians").
- D. This policy is subject to review in principle by the Diocesan Priests' Council.
