HAPPY TUESDAY OF THE 15TH WEEK OF ORDINARY TIME!

HAS IT BEEN THREE YEARS? Every three years, a parish is expected to gather its liturgical ministers, primarily its Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Lay Leaders of Weekday Celebrations of Holy Communion to provide them with spiritual and practical formation in support their ministries. Names of your EMoHC's need to be submitted by your pastor or administrator by letter to the Bishop, and then publicly commissioned during Mass in your parish. Those who have been trained to be Lay Leaders of Weekday Celebrations of Holy Communion also need to be submitted by letter to the Bishop and be publicly commissioned; in addition, these leaders are required to go through our diocesan Safe Environment process since they have potential contact with vulnerable populations. Let me know how I can be of service to you and your parish!

[Note Well:] The FDLC Newsletters have been taken down from the website. Our diocese is a member of FDLC, and we may access the newsletters through their website at www.fdlc.org. We are not able to post them securely for “our eyes only” on our website. We will continue to post pertinent and “free” information from FDLC as it becomes available. Most, if not all, information is in conjunction with supporting the directives of the BCDW with formational materials, etc. This Office maintains contact with the FDLC website through our paid membership. Thank you, Bishop Hoepfner, and generous donors to the DAA, for continued support of sound liturgical practices here in our diocese.
