

PAGELLA OF FACULTIES

V. Post-Confirmation Period

- A. Reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation is a further initiation into life in the community rather than the end of a process.
- B. The period immediately following the reception of the Sacrament is an important time for those confirmed to continue their involvement in the life of the parish. Opportunities must be provided for development of each person's capacity to witness Christ in every endeavor of life.