Holy Week Message from Bishop Andrew H. Cozzens

Bishop Cozzens Easter Vigil Message

The Easter Vigil is the high point of our Church year. It's the most important celebration we have in the year. It's the moment when we gather to celebrate and remember Christ's victory over death. It's the one night where we all stay up into the night vigiling. What is vigiling? Vigiling is waiting. What are we waiting for? Of course, we're waiting for the Resurrection, not the first Resurrection, which already happened, but Christ's Second Coming. It makes sense that if Christ rose from the dead on this day, and we know he's coming back, he might come back on this day. And so, we wait into the night, hoping this will be the year when Christ will come and complete the victory he began at the first Resurrection.
