ALPHA, the beginnings of a life of faith

St. Peter the Apostle, Park Rapids and St. Mary, Two Inlets, have started an initiative that is bearing fruit in the form of deeper community and a culture of discipleship and evangelization.

After months of preparation, the parishes launched their first public session of Alpha in February. Alpha — which means beginning — is a series of gatherings that facilitate discussions about life, faith and meaning. The sessions take place over 11 weeks; each includes a meal, video and small group discussion. A weekend retreat focused on the Holy Spirit takes place in the middle of the string of sessions.

STEWARDSHIP

Thank you for giving

Thank you to the 2,664 households who have contributed to this year's Diocesan Annual Appeal: A Future Full of Hope. Combined you have contributed $908,522 towards ministries no one parish is able to provide on its own.

For those who have yet to contribute, consider a blessing you have received through your parish. Whether that blessing has come through Mass, one of the sacraments, or an encounter with a member of the staff, the diocese plays a vital role in that blessing. The parish cannot exist without the diocese and the diocese cannot exist without the parish, especially you!

Thank you for generously providing a Future Full of Hope!
