Gratitude for Pope Leo XIV and living the Church's mission

We have a pope! We are so grateful to God to welcome Pope Leo XIV!

I don't know about you, but the experience of the death of our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and the election of a new Holy Father has been an experience of death and resurrection. The Church, which is one throughout the world, is united around our Holy Father at the service of our Lord Jesus Christ. Even when the Holy Father dies, our mission goes on and receiving a new Holy Father is an experience of the resurrection.

Evangelization across generations: Cathedral School becomes spiritual home for Horak Family

On March 9, Aaron Horak, along with his wife Mandy, participated in the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Crookston along with the other candidates and catechumens from around the diocese. This marked their final preparations as candidates this Lenten season, as they prepared to fully enter the Catholic Church at Easter.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

You are invited to become a Eucharistic Missionary

You are invited to become a Eucharistic Missionary in a more formal way through formation episodes offered by the National Eucharistic Revival team. This five-part training will equip you to become the Eucharistic Missionary our Lord is inviting you to be. Each training module is informative, inspiring, free, and online through the National Eucharistic Revival. Beginning May 18th, the National Eucharistic Revival team is inviting individuals and parish groups to begin formation to become a Eucharistic Missionary and be commissioned on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.
