Pastor: Monsignor Robert L. Sell, III
 Parochial Vicar: Reverend Daniel P. Shine
 Business Manager: Harriett Russel
 Parish Secretary: Anita Myers
 Pastoral Associate: Janice Storey
 Religious Education Coordinator: Lawson Hunsicker
 Holy Cross School Principal: Tina Neal

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord:

ALLELUIA! Christ is Risen! ALLELUIA! Death is conquered! ALLELUIA! With this ancient Prayer of Praise the Church throughout the world resounds with the message of Salvation and the Gift of Eternal Life that is promised to all who profess on their lips and believe in their hearts that Jesus Christ is Lord, raised to glory by God the Father (see Romans 10:9).

The glory of Lent is meant to be proclaimed through the prayer-filled actions of our heart. This is not a time to say to ourselves "Thank God THAT'S done, now I can get back to my usual things." Hopefully we have been so motivated by the experience of spiritual renewal from Lent that we can respond with anticipated joy to the Lord's call to come, follow Him (Mt. 4:18). The Holy Season of Lent can teach us how to trust in the Lord and give over to Him all that estranges us from His Life and Love. With 'hearts on fire' (Lk. 24:32) from joyful hope, we are now TO BE disciples of the Lord and to carry His message to all those to whom He sends us and all those who cross our path.

The most recent issue of Reader's Digest contains a section on the meaning of success. One of the contributors for that article, Trisha Gonzalez from Jacksonville,

Florida defines success "In the words attributed to Ralph Waldo Emerson: 'Success is to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.' THAT is success to me!" I sincerely believe that each one of us needs to take a moment each morning, perhaps before we even get out of bed, to pray to God that He gives us the sustained grace of the heart to do SOMETHING for one other person during the hours we are awake. If we do that, then, perhaps, when it comes to return to bed for the restful renewal of body and spirit, we will be able to recall the wonder of God in the day we have just finished. Then we might be able to say to ourselves, "Thanks be to God for that moment of Grace. Thanks be to God for that gift of wonder and willingness to do something for the sake of one other person. Thanks be to God for the Faith that teaches me to say YES to the Lord in every single moment of life."

Alleluia! Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Death is conquered! Alleluia! Never be afraid to remember the love of God. Never be unwilling to trust His Guidance. Never fail to say to yourself: this day God gives me life; may I find its wonder and share its blessing for the sake of at least one other heart!

Peace be with you, Monsignor

DESDE EL PASTOR

Queridos Hermanas y Hermanos en el Señor:

¡ALELUYA! ¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡ALELUYA! La muerte es conquistada! ¡ALELUYA! Con esta antigua Oración de Alabanza, la Iglesia en todo el mundo resuena con el mensaje de Salvación y el Regalo de la Vida Eterna que se promete a todos los que profesan en sus labios y creen en sus corazones que Jesucristo es el Señor, resucitado por Dios el Señor. Padre (ver Romanos 10: 9).

La gloria de la Cuaresma debe proclamarse a través de las acciones llenas de oración de nuestro corazón. Este no es un momento para decirnos: "Gracias a Dios, eso ya está hecho, ahora puedo volver a mis cosas habituales". Esperamos que estemos tan motivados por la experiencia de renovación espiritual de la Cuaresma que podamos responder con alegría anticipada a la experiencia del Señor. Llama para venir, síguelo (Mt.4: 18). La temporada santa de la Cuaresma puede enseñarnos cómo confiar en el Señor y entregarle a Él todo lo que nos aleja de Su vida y Amor. Con "corazones en fuego" (Lc.24: 32) de esperanza alegre, ahora debemos SER discípulos del Señor y llevar Su mensaje a todos aquellos a quienes Él nos envía ya todos los que se cruzan en nuestro camino.

El número más reciente de Reader's Digest contiene una sección sobre el significado del éxito. Una de las colaboradoras de ese artículo, Trisha Gonzalez de Jacksonville, Florida, define el éxito "En las palabras atribuidas a Ralph Waldo Emerson: 'El éxito es saber que incluso una vida ha respirado mejor porque has vivido'. ¡ESO es un éxito para mí! " Sinceramente, creo que cada uno de nosotros necesita tomar un momento cada mañana, quizás antes de salir de la cama, para orar a Dios para que nos dé la gracia continua del corazón para hacer ALGO para otra persona durante las horas que pasamos. están despiertos Si hacemos eso, entonces, quizás, cuando se trata de volver a la cama para la renovación reparadora del cuerpo y el espíritu, podremos recordar la maravilla de Dios en el día que acabamos de terminar. Entonces podríamos decirnos a nosotros mismos: "Gracias a Dios por ese momento de gracia. Gracias a Dios por el don de la maravilla y la voluntad de hacer algo por el bien de otra persona. Gracias a Dios por la fe que me enseña a decir SÍ al Señor en cada momento de la vida ".

¡Aleluya! ¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡Aleluya! La muerte es conquistada! ¡Aleluya! Nunca tengas miedo de recordar el amor de Dios. Nunca estés dispuesto a confiar en Su Guía. Nunca dejes de decirte a ti mismo: este día Dios me da vida; ¡Que pueda encontrar su maravilla y compartir su bendición por el bien de al menos otro corazón!

La paz sea contigo, Monseñor
