Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord:

We may all remember how last week's Gospel from St. Luke (13:22-30) presented the question to Jesus about how many might be saved. Pope Francis offers us an interesting insight into this dialogue. He states that there are "several ways to interpret Scriptures on this issue, depending on the texts chosen. Jesus, however, reverses the question—which stresses quantity, that is 'are they few?'—and instead places the question in the context of responsibility, inviting us to make good use of the present. Indeed, He says: 'Strive to enter by the narrow door; for many I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able.' (v. 24)

"With these words, Jesus makes it clear that it is not a matter of numbers, there is no 'limited number' in Paradise! Rather, it is a case of taking the right way from now on...This is the problem. Jesus does not want to give us false hopes...He tells us things as they truly are: the doorway is narrow in the sense that in order to save oneself, one has to love God and neighbor, and this is uncomfortable...because it is demanding. It requires commitment, indeed, 'effort' that is a determined and persevering willingness to live according to the Gospel....The Lord will recognize us only for our humble life and a good life, a life of faith that resulted in good works.

"...For us Christians, this means that we are called to establish a true communion with Jesus, praying, going to Church, staying near to the Sacraments and nourishing ourselves by His Word. This keeps us in the faith, nourishes our hope, and rekindles our charity. And thus, with God's grace, we can and must live our lives for the good of our brothers and sisters, fighting against every kind of evil and injustice.

"May the Virgin Mary help us...She went through the narrow door that is Jesus. She welcomed Him with all her heart and she followed Him every day of her life, even when she did not understand, even when a sword pierced her soul. This is why we invoke her as 'Mary, Gate of Heaven'—a gate that traces the form of Jesus precisely; the door of God's heart, a demanding heart but one that is open to us all." Pope Francis gives hope to us all that by following the example of Our Blessed Mother we will open our own hearts to make a pathway for her Son, Our Savior, to enter into communion with us and lead us along the pathway to His Kingdom. May the grace of God grant each of us the opportunity to do just that.

Peace be with you, Monsignor

DESDE EL PASTOR

Queridas hermanas y hermanos en el Señor:

Todos podemos recordar cómo el Evangelio de San Lucas de la semana pasada (13: 22-30) presentó la pregunta a Jesús sobre cuántos podrían salvarse. El Papa Francisco nos ofrece una visión interesante de este diálogo. Afirma que hay "varias formas de interpretar las Escrituras sobre este tema, dependiendo de los textos elegidos. Sin embargo, Jesús invierte la pregunta, que enfatiza la cantidad, es decir, "¿son pocos?", Y en su lugar coloca la pregunta en el contexto de responsabilidad, invitándonos a hacer un buen uso del presente. De hecho, Él dice: 'Esfuézate por entrar por la puerta angosta; para muchos, les digo, buscarán ingresar y no podrán ". (v. 24)

“¡Con estas palabras, Jesús deja en claro que no se trata de números, no hay 'número limitado' en el Paraíso! Más bien, se trata de tomar el camino correcto de ahora en adelante ... Este es el problema. Jesús no quiere darnos falsas esperanzas ... Nos dice las cosas como realmente son: la puerta es estrecha en el sentido de que para salvarse, uno tiene que amar a Dios y al prójimo, y esto es incómodo ... porque es exigente . Requiere compromiso, de hecho, 'esfuerzo' que es una voluntad decidida y perseverante de vivir de acuerdo con el Evangelio ... El Señor nos reconocerá solo por nuestra vida humilde y buena vida, una vida de fe que resultó en buenas obras.

“... Para nosotros los cristianos, esto significa que estamos llamados a establecer una verdadera comunión con Jesús, orando, yendo a la Iglesia, manteniéndonos cerca de los sacramentos y alimentándonos de Su Palabra. Esto nos mantiene en la fe, alimenta nuestra esperanza y reaviva nuestra caridad. Y así, con la gracia de Dios, podemos y debemos vivir nuestras vidas por el bien de nuestros hermanos y hermanas, luchando contra todo tipo de maldad e injusticia.

“Que la Virgen María nos ayude ... Ella entró por la puerta estrecha que es Jesús. Ella lo recibió con todo su corazón y lo siguió todos los días de su vida, incluso cuando no lo entendió, incluso cuando una espada atravesó su alma. Es por eso que la invocamos como "María, Puerta del Cielo", una puerta que traza con precisión la forma de Jesús; la puerta del corazón de Dios, un corazón exigente pero que está abierto para todos nosotros ”. El Papa Francisco nos da la esperanza de que, siguiendo el ejemplo de Nuestra Santísima Madre, abriremos nuestros propios corazones para abrir un camino para su Hijo, Nuestro Salvador, para entrar en comunión con nosotros y guiarnos por el camino hacia Su Reino. Que la gracia de Dios nos conceda a cada uno de nosotros la oportunidad de hacer precisamente eso.

La paz sea con usted, Monseñor
