Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord:

September 7, 2019, Pope Francis visited with the bishops of Madagascar during his Apostolic Visit to that nation. Here is part of his address to them which has value for all of us.

“‘Sower of peace and hope.’ The theme chosen for my Visit can serve as an echo of the mission with which we have been entrusted. In effect, we are sowers, and those who sow do so in hope; they do it counting on their own efforts and personal commitment, but also knowing that many other factors combine to make the seed take root, grow and finally give abundant grain.... The sower may be weary and concerned, but he does not give up and stop sowing, much less burn his field when things do not turn out well. He knows how to wait, he trusts, he realizes the limitations of his sowing. But he never stops loving the field entrusted to his care. Even if he is tempted, he does not abandon it or leave it to another.

“The sower knows his land, he ‘touches’ it, ‘feels’ it and prepares it to produce its best.... The true shepherd is among the people, immersed among the people, in love with the people...It follows that Christian conversion demands reviewing especially those areas and aspects of life related to the social order and the pursuit of the common good. Consequently, no one can demand that religion should be relegated to the inner sanctum of personal life, without influence on societal and national life, without concern for the soundness of civil institutions, without a right to offer an opinion on events affecting society.

....The prophetic dimension of the Church’s mission calls, always and everywhere, for a discernment that, in general, is not easy. In this regard, a prudent and independent cooperation between the Church and the state remains a constant challenge, for there is a danger of collusion, especially if we end up losing the zest of the Gospel. By attentive listening to what the Spirit continues to say to the Churches (see Rev. 2:7), we can escape pitfalls and release the ferment of the Gospel for the sake of a fruitful cooperation with civil society in the pursuit of the common good. The mark of such discernment will be that the proclamation of the Gospel demonstrates concern for all forms of poverty...for all people, for their general temporal welfare and prosperity.”

I believe that the more we listen to and try to implement the teachings of Pope Francis, the greater shall become our awareness of the Kingdom of God among us and within us. Let us each commit our hearts to bringing forth that gift as best we are able.

May God bless you, Monsignor

DESDE EL PASTOR

Queridas hermanas y hermanos en el Señor:

El 7 de septiembre de 2019, el Papa Francisco visitó a los obispos de Madagascar durante su visita apostólica a esa nación. Aquí está parte de su dirección para ellos que tiene valor para todos nosotros.

"Sembrador de paz y esperanza". El tema elegido para mi visita puede servir como un eco de la misión con la que se nos ha confiado. En efecto, somos sembradores, y quienes siembran lo hacen con esperanza; lo hacen contando con sus propios esfuerzos y compromiso personal, pero también sabiendo que muchos otros factores se combinan para hacer que la semilla eche raíces, crezca y finalmente dé grano abundante. El sembrador puede estar cansado y preocupado, pero no se rinde y deja de sembrar, y mucho menos quema su campo cuando las cosas no salen bien. Sabe esperar, confía, se da cuenta de las limitaciones de su siembra. Pero nunca deja de amar el campo encomendado a su cuidado. Incluso si es tentado, no lo abandona ni se lo deja a otro.

"El sembrador conoce su tierra, la" toca "," siente "y la prepara para producir lo mejor ... El verdadero pastor está entre la gente, inmerso entre la gente, enamorado de la gente ... Se deduce que la conversión cristiana exige revisar especialmente aquellas áreas y aspectos de la vida relacionados con el orden social y la búsqueda del bien común. En consecuencia, nadie puede exigir que la religión sea relegada al santuario interior de la vida personal, sin influencia en la vida social y nacional, sin preocuparse por la solidez de las instituciones civiles, sin derecho a ofrecer una opinión sobre los eventos que afectan a la sociedad.

"... La dimensión profética de la misión de la Iglesia exige, siempre y en todas partes, un discernimiento que, en general, no es fácil. En este sentido, una cooperación prudente e independiente entre la Iglesia y el estado sigue siendo un desafío constante, ya que existe el peligro de colusión, especialmente si terminamos perdiendo el entusiasmo del Evangelio. Al escuchar atentamente lo que el Espíritu continúa diciendo a las Iglesias (ver Apocalipsis 2: 7), podemos escapar de las trampas y liberar el fermento del Evangelio en aras de una fructífera cooperación con la sociedad civil en la búsqueda del bien común. . La marca de tal discernimiento será que la proclamación del Evangelio demuestra preocupación por todas las formas de pobreza ... por todas las personas, por su bienestar y prosperidad temporal general ".

Creo que cuanto más escuchemos e intentemos implementar las enseñanzas del Papa Francisco, mayor será nuestra conciencia del Reino de Dios entre nosotros y dentro de nosotros. Hagamos que cada uno comprometa nuestros corazones a producir ese regalo lo mejor que podamos.

Que Dios te bendiga, Monseñor
