Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord:

My healing process from the brain surgery is coming to its completion. Thanks be to God for the myriad Prayers, Spiritual Bouquets and Masses that various parishioners had offered for me in my recovery. It became far too difficult to try and write personal notes to everyone. By the time I may have finished six or eight of them, at least a dozen new ones would arrive in the daily mail! I am overwhelmed by the sincerity and number of personal notes that came to me. Thank-you, each and every one of you for taking the time to find, write within and mail to me the cards and greetings that came my way. When a veterinary doctor can take the time to write a note of thoughtfulness and assurance of prayers for a good recovery—one cannot claim to have been forgotten!

And now I need to prepare us all for the upcoming departure that I have been given by the Bishop's Office to a new assignment for ministry in Kokomo. Some have asked if I am ready to make a move "at my age" and why I haven't considered retirement instead. My answer to that is twofold. First, I don't think seventy years is too old. When one is in the twenties, to think that one day they might reach seventy (or beyond) seems far-fetched and a matter about which you need not worry. The closer one gets to seventy, the more you begin to realize that the twilight years of life are almost staring you in the face! And, the more you discover that some things you once easily accomplished are now difficult, if not down-right impossible to achieve alone. It's humbling to come to the conclusion that you either need to leave something for "another day" or take the time to ask for some help. The latter approach makes the challenge easier; the former will not make it go away, no matter how hard you might try.

The older I get, the more I am learning that with the assistance of one another, we can reach goals that once seemed unsurmountable. Being willing to ask for the companionship of another can make any mountain easier to climb and bring to completion the impossible dream. Thank-you to all those who have helped me realize that gift. May God continue to bless us as we seek ways in which to bless one another.

Peace be with you, Monsignor

Queridas hermanas y hermanos en el Señor:

Mi proceso de curación de la cirugía cerebral está llegando a su fin. Gracias a Dios por la miríada de oraciones, ramos espirituales y misas que varios feligreses me habían ofrecido en mi recuperación. Se volvió demasiado difícil tratar de escribir notas personales para todos. Para cuando haya terminado seis u ocho de ellos, ¡al menos una docena de nuevos llegarían por correo diario! Estoy abrumado por la sinceridad y la cantidad de notas personales que me llegaron. Gracias, todos y cada uno de ustedes por tomarse el tiempo para buscar, escribir y enviarme por correo las tarjetas y saludos que me llegaron. Cuando un médico veterinario puede tomarse el tiempo para escribir una nota de consideración y seguridad de las oraciones para una buena recuperación, ¡no se puede afirmar que se ha olvidado!

Y ahora necesito prepararnos a todos para la próxima partida que me ha dado la Oficina del Obispo para una nueva asignación para el ministerio en Kokomo. Algunos han preguntado si estoy listo para hacer un movimiento "a mi edad" y por qué no he considerado la jubilación. Mi respuesta a eso es doble. Primero, no creo que setenta años sea demasiado viejo. Cuando uno tiene más de veinte años, pensar que algún día podrían llegar a los setenta (o más) parece descabellado y no es motivo de preocupación. ¡Cuanto más se acerca uno a setenta, más te das cuenta de que los años crepusculares de la vida casi te están mirando a la cara! Y, cuanto más descubras que algunas cosas que una vez lograste fácilmente ahora son difíciles, si no totalmente imposibles de lograr solo. Es humilde llegar a la conclusión de que debes dejar algo para "otro día" o tomarte el tiempo para pedir ayuda. El último enfoque facilita el desafío; el primero no lo hará desaparecer, no importa cuánto lo intentes.

Cuanto más envejeczo, más aprendo que con la ayuda de los demás, podemos alcanzar objetivos que antes parecían insuperables. Estar dispuesto a pedir la compañía de otro puede hacer que cualquier montaña sea más fácil de escalar y completar el sueño imposible. Gracias a todos los que me han ayudado a realizar ese regalo. Que Dios continúe bendiciéndonos mientras buscamos formas de bendecirnos unos a otros.

La paz sea contigo, Monseñor

Nine years ago Worldwide Marriage Encounter sponsored an annual search to honor the commitment of married couples and to give hope to younger couples – that marriage can last a lifetime. The 10th Annual Search is now on for the Longest Married Couple. In addition to honoring the longest married couple for the entire United States, recognition will also be given to a couple from each State who has achieved that distinction.

Go to www.wwme.org to find out more information and to nominate couples. You do not need to know the Couple personally to nominate them. Nominations must be received by 31 July 2020.

THANK YOU for participating in our 10th Annual search for the Longest Married Couple!
