Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma

Off the Top of My Head...

We are now in the fifth week of Lent, which means that next week is Holy Week.

The Holy Week schedule is in the bulletin as well as on printed flyers that are available in all the parishes near the entrances. If you plan to take part in any of the Holy Week liturgies, that flyer can be a nice reminder.

The scheduling of Holy Week services is a little different from what's been done in the past, and it may or may not be the best possible schedule. In putting it together, we opted for consistency, so the time for Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday (Easter Vigil) services are the same in all three parishes. And we opted for times that we thought to be most convenient for the largest number of people. We'll see how our plans and priorities work out!

In trying to make the services convenient for a larger number of people, we're also aware of the balancing act that we need to perform. A full church is always the goal, especially during the holiest week of the year, but we also ask that everyone practice social distancing. The new pew configuration which we are starting this weekend is meant to help address this challenge. At all the English Masses in the Pastorate, we will reserve a section of pews for all those who have completed their vaccinations. Seating there is optional but encouraged for those folks, and in those sections we will use every pew instead of every second pew. This will open up more seating in the rest of the church.

Also, the three evening liturgies and one of the Easter Sunday Masses at St. Mary's in Anderson will be bilingual. Bilingual Masses present both challenges and blessings. While it's harder to participate in the Mass when parts of it are not in our own language, the shared experience of grace and worship, across lines of language, culture and skin color, is more than worth the effort.

Lent officially ends on Holy Thursday, with the first liturgy of the Easter Triduum ("three days"). May God bless our Lenten commitments as we prepare for the celebration of the dying and rising of Christ.

Reflexión Del Padre Tom....

Llegamos a la quinta semana de Cuaresma, lo que significa que la próxima semana es Semana Santa. El horario de Semana Santa está en el boletín, así como volantes impresos que están disponibles en todas las entradas de las parroquias. Si planea participar en alguna de las actividades de liturgia de Semana Santa, ese volante puede ser un buen recordatorio.

La programación de los servicios de Semana Santa es un poco diferente de lo que se ha hecho en el pasado, y puede ser que no sea el mejor horario posible. Al armarlo, optamos por la consistencia, por lo que el tiempo los servicios del Jueves Santo, Viernes Santo y Sábado Santo (Vigilia Pascual) son los mismos en las tres parroquias. Y optamos por los horarios que pensamos que serían más convenientes para la mayor de gente. ¡Ya Veremos cómo nuestros planes y prioridades funcionan!

Al intentar que los servicios sean convenientes para un mayor número de personas, también somos conscientes al equilibrio que debemos realizar. Una iglesia llena es siempre el objetivo, especialmente durante la época más santa. Semana del año. Pero también pedimos que todos practiquen el distanciamiento social. La nueva configuración de bancos que estamos comenzando este fin de semana están destinados a ayudar a abordar este desafío. En todas las misas en inglés en la pastoral, estaremos reservando una sección de bancas para todos aquellos que hayan recibido sus vacunas. Sentarse allí es opcional, pero se recomienda a esas personas, y en esas secciones usaremos todos los bancos. en lugar de cada segundo banco. Esto abrirá más asientos en el resto de la iglesia.

Además, las tres liturgias de la tarde y una de las misas del domingo de Pascua en St. Maria en Anderson serán bilingües. Las misas bilingües presentan tanto desafíos como bendiciones. Si bien es difícil participar en Misa cuando partes de ella no están en nuestro propio idioma, la experiencia compartida de gracia y adoración, por el lenguaje, cultura y color de piel, vale la pena el esfuerzo.

La Cuaresma finaliza oficialmente el Jueves Santo, con la primera liturgia del Triduo Pascual ("durante tres días"). Que Dios bendiga nuestros compromisos de Cuaresma mientras nos preparamos para la celebración de la muerte y resurrección de Cristo.
