Twenty-Third Sunday In Ordinary Time

Vigésimo tercer domingo del tiempo ordinario

Off the Top of My Head...

In the last year or so, one of the most visible sources of division among Americans has been the “mask mandate.” In airports, on airplanes, in restaurants, stores, and other public places, arguments, fights, and, in some cases, serious violence have broken out when people in those locations are informed or reminded that they are required to wear a mask in order to help limit the spread of the Covid-19 virus.

While a large number of peer-reviewed scientific studies show that the use of masks is very effective in stopping the spread of the virus, people disregard or reject these studies and refuse to wear masks, for various personal reasons. (Of course, in the cases of young children or persons with particular health issues, masks should not be worn. But these cases are a very small minority.)

But whatever reasons may be given, there is a strong and steady refrain that we often hear: “To force me to wear a mask is a violation of my rights.”

What I never hear when the issue of personal or individual rights is invoked is the corresponding issue of personal responsibilities.

Here’s what the Catholic Church teaches about Rights and Responsibilities: “The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities--to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.” (Source: <https://www.usccb.org/resources/themes-catholic-social-teaching>)

Sometimes we see personal rights simply as the freedom to do what we want to do without interference from others.

But the Catholic tradition has a much richer understanding of rights: They are connected to human dignity and community – not simply a justification for individual freedoms. Rights do not exist without responsibilities. THE PURPOSE OF OUR RIGHTS IS TO ENABLE US TO ADDRESS OUR RESPONSIBILITIES.

Responsibilities are not simply duties. They bind us to others, and to the wider community.

While the “mask mandate” is probably the most visible example, there are plenty of other instances of division in this country caused by the impoverished understanding of “my rights” simply as “my personal freedoms.”

Catholic teaching gives us a broader, richer, and, yes, more demanding understanding of what it means to have rights.

Pensamiento del Padre Tom...

2

En el último año, una de las fuentes más visibles de división entre los estadounidenses ha sido el "mandato de la máscara".

En aeropuertos, aviones, restaurantes, tiendas y otros lugares públicos, se han producido discusiones, peleas y, en algunos casos, violencia grave cuando se informa a las personas en esos lugares o se les recuerda que deben usar una máscara para ayudar a limitar la propagación del virus Covid-19.

Si bien una gran cantidad de estudios científicos revisados por pares muestran que el uso de máscaras es muy eficaz para detener la propagación del virus, las personas ignoran o rechazan estos estudios y se niegan a usar máscaras, por diversas razones personales. (Por supuesto, en los casos de niños pequeños o personas con problemas de salud particulares, no se deben usar máscaras. Pero estos casos son una minoría muy pequeña).

Pero sean cuales sean las razones que se puedan dar, hay un estribillo fuerte y constante que a menudo escuchamos: "Obligarme a usar una máscara es una violación de mis derechos".

Lo que nunca escucho cuando se invoca la cuestión de los derechos personales o individuales es la cuestión correspondiente de las responsabilidades personales.

Esto es lo que enseña la Iglesia Católica sobre Derechos y Responsabilidades: "La tradición católica enseña que se puede proteger la dignidad humana y que se puede lograr una comunidad saludable solo si se protegen los derechos humanos y se cumplen las responsabilidades. Por lo tanto, toda persona tiene el derecho fundamental a la vida y el derecho a las cosas necesarias para la decencia humana. Correspondientes a estos derechos están los deberes y responsabilidades, entre nosotros, con nuestras familias y con la sociedad en general.." (Source: <https://www.usccb.org/resources/themes-catholic-social-teaching>)

A veces vemos los derechos personales simplemente como la libertad de hacer lo que queremos hacer sin la interferencia de otros.

Pero la tradición católica tiene una explicación mucho más rica de los derechos: están conectados con la dignidad humana y la comunidad, no simplemente una justificación de las libertades individuales. Los derechos no existen sin responsabilidades. EL PROPÓSITO DE NUESTROS DERECHOS ES PERMITIRNOS EL TOMAR NUESTRAS RESPONSABILIDADES.

Las responsabilidades no son simplemente deberes. Nos unen a los demás y a la comunidad en general.

Si bien el "mandato de la máscara" es probablemente el ejemplo más visible, hay muchos otros casos de división en este país causados por la comprensión empobrecida de "mis derechos" simplemente como "mis libertades personales".

La enseñanza católica nos da una comprensión más amplia, rica y, sí, más exigente de lo que significa tener derechos.

Quinceañera Retiro de otoño 2021

Las Oficinas de Vida Familiar y Ministerio Hispano han creado un equipo que ofrecerá, dos veces al año, retiros de quinceañeras. Este servicio pastoral tiene como objetivo ofrecer a las jóvenes de 15 años la oportunidad de vivir un encuentro personal con Jesús como el mejor contexto espiritual para celebrar y dedicar su juventud a Dios. Al mismo tiempo, pero en una sala separada, los padres recibirán una formación (en español) sobre cómo acompañar a sus adolescentes en este momento particular de sus vidas: cómo comunicarse de manera eficiente con ellos, y herramientas clave para hablar con ellos sobre la sexualidad y las decisiones emocionales a las que se enfrentan en este momento de sus vidas. El retiro en sí no tiene costo. Solo pedimos una contribución de $10 por persona ($25 si viene con dos padres) para cubrir los gastos de comida. Al final del retiro, la adolescente recibirá un certificado que puede presentar en su parroquia como prueba válida de su disposición para celebrar su Quinceañera en un contexto religioso en la iglesia. Retiro de quinceañera otoño 2021: Sábado 16 de octubre: de 9:00 a 15:30 h. Santa Juana de Arco, 3155 S 200 W Kokomo. Los formularios de inscripción para este retiro se pueden encontrar en el tablón de anuncios de la iglesia. Si tiene alguna pregunta, no dude en ponerse en contacto con nuestra oficina.
