Off the Top of My Head...

The Advent Giving Tree has been custom in two of the three parishes in our Anderson-Alexandria Pastorate, and is about to be inaugurated (or maybe restored) in the third.

The two Anderson parishes, St. Mary's and St. Ambrose, have sponsored the Advent Giving Tree for a number of years, and will continue to do so. St. Mary's in Alexandria will be sponsoring an Advent Giving Tree for the first time (or reinstating a custom that had been discontinued).

(Forgive me for not knowing the history in detail. I'm still new here! And even though it's been over a year since I arrived, I'm still claiming inexperience!)

Here's how the Advent Giving Tree works: On (or before) the First Sunday of Advent (which will be celebrated on November 27-28 this year), the tree is set up in or near the worship space of the church with a variety of tags attached. Each tag will identify an item or items to be purchased and returned to the church by a certain date. (The deadline will differ from parish to parish.)

So it's simply a matter of carefully following the instructions on the tag, and purchasing the items listed on one or more tags. (I recommend the "or more" option!)

In the Anderson parishes, gifts will be requested for the St. Vincent de Paul Center, the Christian Center, homebound parishioners, Stepping Stones for Veterans shelter, and needy children in the Anderson community.

At St. Mary's in Alexandria, gifts will be requested for needy children in the Alexandria community.

The members of our parishes have often shown themselves to be generous and caring in addressing the needs of the disadvantaged. Advent begins next weekend and with it comes the opportunity to once again rise to the occasion.

Long Live Christ the King!

Come, Lord Jesus!

Mensaje Del Padre Tom...

El árbol de regalos de Adviento ha sido una costumbre en dos de las tres parroquias de nuestra pastoral Anderson-Alexandria, y está a punto de ser inaugurado (o tal vez restaurado) en la tercera. Las dos parroquias de Anderson, Sta. María y San. Ambrosio, han patrocinado el Árbol de Donaciones de Adviento durante varios años y continuarán haciéndolo. Sta. María en Alejandría patrocinará un árbol de donaciones de Adviento por primera vez (o establecerá una costumbre que se había descontinuado).

(Disculpen por no conocer la historia en detalle. ¡Todavía soy nuevo aquí! Y aunque ha pasado más de un año desde que llegué, ¡sigo afirmando mi inexperiencia!)

Así es como funciona el árbol de regalos de Adviento: el (o antes) del primer domingo de Adviento (que se celebrará del 27 al 28 de noviembre de este año), el árbol se coloca en o cerca del espacio de adoración de la iglesia con una variedad de etiquetas colgadas. Cada etiqueta identificará un artículo o artículos que se comprarán y devolverán a la iglesia antes de una fecha determinada. (La fecha límite variará de una parroquia a otra).

Por lo tanto, es simplemente una cuestión de seguir cuidadosamente las instrucciones de la etiqueta y comprar los artículos que figuran en una o más etiquetas. (¡Recomiendo la opción "o más"!)

En las parroquias de Anderson, se solicitarán obsequios para San Vicente de Paul, El Centro Cristiano, feligreses confinados en casa, El refugio Stepping Stones para los Veteranos y los niños necesitados de la comunidad de Anderson.

En Sta. María in Alexandria, los regalos serán donados para los niños necesitados en la comunidad de Alexandria.

Los miembros de nuestras parroquias se han mostrado generosos y solidarios al abordar las necesidades de los desfavorecidos. El Adviento comienza el próximo fin de semana y con él llega la oportunidad de estar una vez más a la altura de las circunstancias.

¡Viva Cristo Rey!

! Ven, Señor Jesús!

Prayer—"Prayer is the voluntary response to the awareness of God's existence." Prayer takes different forms: adoration, gratitude or thanksgiving, sorrow for ones sins, petition for God's graces and love for God who is all good. There are two types of prayer. The first type is liturgical and thus public. The second is private prayer. Both types of prayer are necessary to our lives. Our prayer takes on its ecclesial form in public prayer, as we pray in union with our brothers and sisters of Christ's one church, and also as we pray privately for ourselves and our salvation. (References: "Modern Catholic Dictionary", by John A Hardon, S.J., 1999, Eternal Life, Bardstown, KY and "Theological Dictionary", by Karl Rahner and Herbert Vorgrimler, 1968, Herder and Herder, New York, NY.)

Oración—"La oración es la respuesta voluntaria a la conciencia de la existencia de Dios". La oración toma diferentes formas: adoración, gratitud o acción de gracias, dolor por los pecados, petición de la gracia de Dios y amor por Dios, que es todo bueno. Hay dos tipos de oración. El primer tipo es litúrgico y, por tanto, público. El segundo es la oración privada. Ambos tipos de oración son necesarios para nuestra vida. Nuestra oración adquiere su forma eclesial en la oración pública, mientras oramos en unión con nuestros hermanos y hermanas de la única iglesia de Cristo, y también cuando oramos en privado por nosotros mismos y nuestra salvación.
