OFF THE TOP OF MY HEAD...

LITURGY: One of the groups that has been formed recently in the Pastorate is the Pastorate Liturgy Council. The council includes members of each of the three parishes, both Hispanic and Anglo, and works with the priests and with Christine Vincent-Rodas, our Director of Evangelization.

The purpose of the Pastorate Liturgy Council is “To enhance and strengthen the celebration of the Liturgy in our parishes, leading to more full, active, and conscious participation by the people in our common worship, the summit and source of the life of the Church.” (This is a draft purpose statement but pretty well sums up what the group is about.)

Specific areas of responsibility including learning about the Church’s liturgy (public worship); implementing any liturgical elements of the Vision Plan for the Pastorate (which is still a work in progress); to explore ways of improving the celebration of the liturgy (Mass, Sacraments, and Liturgy of the Hours) in the Pastorate; develop common priorities, practices, policies, and procedures for liturgy in the Pastorate; to connect liturgy and evangelization in practical ways; and to foster good communication in the Pastorate regarding the liturgy.

This council is not being formed because there is something wrong with the way we celebrate the Mass and Sacraments here, but because we want to make something GOOD into something BETTER. Your prayers are appreciated!

BULLETIN: Recently, in my bulletin column I wrote about the bulletin itself. I mentioned that if we could sell more advertisements, the publisher would give us 12 pages instead of 8, resulting in three more pages of content (and one more page of ads.)

We have a “good problem”: NOT ENOUGH SPACE IN OUR BULLETIN! This is a sign of an active pastorate! So that’s the “good” part. The “problem” part is that we can’t publish all items that are submitted to us, at least not often to the satisfaction of those submitting them! So we may be able to publish something once instead of three times, or we may need to edit an article for length. And we prioritize announcements having to do with sacraments and liturgy, faith formation (“religious education”) and our schools, and other parish/pastorate ministries. We are not always able to include other announcements.

So, again I make the invitation (or plea): If you or someone you know might be interested in purchasing an ad in the bulletin, contact your parish office!

PENSAMIENTOS DEL PADRE TOM

LITURGIA: Uno de los grupos que se ha formado recientemente en la Pastoral es el Consejo de Pastoral Liturgia. El consejo incluye miembros de cada una de las tres parroquias, tanto hispanas como anglosajonas, y trabaja con los sacerdotes y con Christine Vincent-Rodas, nuestra Directora de Evangelización.

El propósito del Consejo Pastoral de Liturgia es “Mejorar y fortalecer la celebración de la Liturgia en nuestras parroquias, lo que lleva a una participación más plena, activa y consciente de la gente en nuestro culto común, la cumbre y la fuente de la vida de la Iglesia.” (Este es un borrador de declaración de propósito, pero resume bastante bien de qué se trata el grupo).

Áreas específicas de responsabilidad, incluido el aprendizaje sobre la liturgia de la Iglesia (culto público); implementar cualquier elemento litúrgico del Plan de Visión para el Pastorado (que todavía es un trabajo en progreso); explorar formas de mejorar la celebración de la liturgia (Misa, Sacramentos y Liturgia de las Horas) en la Pastoral; desarrollar prioridades, prácticas, políticas y procedimientos comunes para la liturgia en el Pastorado; conectar la liturgia y la evangelización de manera práctica; y fomentar la buena comunicación en la Pastoral con respecto a la liturgia.

Este consejo no se está formando porque hay algo mal con la forma en que celebramos la Misa y los Sacramentos aquí, sino porque queremos convertir algo BUENO en algo MEJOR. ¡Sus oraciones son apreciadas!

BOLETÍN: Recientemente, en la columna de mi boletín escribí sobre el boletín en sí. Mencioné que si pudiéramos vender más anuncios, el editor nos daría 12 páginas en lugar de 8, lo que daría como resultado tres páginas más de contenido (y una página más de anuncios).

Tenemos un “buen problema”: ¡NO HAY ESPACIO SUFICIENTE EN NUESTRO BOLETÍN! ¡Esta es una señal de un pastorado activo! Así que esa es la parte “buena”. La parte del “problema” es que no podemos publicar todos los elementos que se nos envían, ¡al menos no a menudo para satisfacción de quienes los envían! Por lo tanto, es posible que podamos publicar algo una vez en lugar de tres veces, o es posible que necesitemos editar un artículo por su extensión. Y damos prioridad a los anuncios que tienen que ver con los sacramentos y la liturgia, la formación en la fe (“educación religiosa”) y nuestras escuelas y otros ministerios parroquiales/pastorales. No siempre podemos incluir otros anuncios.

Entonces, nuevamente hago la invitación (o súplica): Si usted o alguien que conoce podría estar interesado en comprar un anuncio en el boletín, ¡comuníquese con la oficina de su parroquia!
