OFF THE TOP OF OUR HEADS...

A couple weeks ago, we announced that the number of Saturday Masses in the parishes of St. Ambrose and St. Mary in Anderson will be reduced from two to one, effective August 5-6. Last Saturday, participants in those two Masses completed a brief survey to indicate their preference for the time of that one Mass. The options were 4:00, 5:00, 5:30, and 6:00, and May 28 is the deadline for the submission of completed surveys. The results will be announced soon after that date.

Although this may not seem all that important to those who don't usually attend one of these Masses, I think it would be helpful if I shared the rationale for the change.

First, this is not a matter of the three priests of the Pastorate being unable to sustain the workload of celebrating seven weekend Masses. But it does involve priest availability - for parish/pastorate weekend retreats, Saturday Masses for funerals, weddings, etc., or when a priest here or in a neighboring pastorate is unavailable due to sickness, vacation, etc.

Second, we have to consider the use of space. Currently, our space is under-utilized. With the Mass attendance at the two Saturday Masses being observably low, it makes sense to reduce the number to one.

Third, we must consider the quality of our liturgies. The participation of the people, and the consistent ministry of readers, altar servers, ushers (ministers of hospitality), music ministers, etc. is of prime importance in our celebration of the Mass. When our participation is lessened because of the small number of people or the lack of liturgical ministers present at the Mass, we have to consider a change that will make better participation possible.

Even before the diocese directed us to make this change, it was being seriously discussed by the priests and the Pastorate Leadership Team, and I probably would eventually have made this decision even without the diocesan mandate, for the reasons given above.

While removing a Mass from the schedule can be seen as a negative, there is a positive aspect. Although the change is a response to a problem, it provides an opportunity. More vibrant liturgies can be a channel to deeper faith for their participants and greater experience of Christian community in the pastorate.

Thank you in advance for your patience with this process. Let's keep praying for each other.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Tom Metzger

PENSAMIENTOS DE LOS DIRECTORES

Hace un par de semanas, anunciamos que el número de misas de los sábados en las parroquias de St. Ambrose y St. Mary en Anderson se reducirá de dos a una, a partir del 5 y 6 de agosto. El sábado pasado, los participantes en esas dos Misas completaron una breve encuesta para indicar su preferencia por la hora de esa Misa. Las opciones eran 4:00, 5:00, 5:30 y 6:00, y el 28 de mayo es la fecha límite para la entrega de encuestas completas. Los resultados se anunciarán poco después de esa fecha.

Aunque esto puede no parecer tan importante para aquellos que no suelen asistir a una de estas Misas, creo que puede ser útil compartir la razón del cambio.

En primer lugar, no se trata de que los tres sacerdotes del Pastorado no puedan soportar la carga de trabajo de celebrar siete misas de fin de semana. Pero sí involucra la disponibilidad del sacerdote: para retiros de fin de semana de la parroquia/pastorado, misas de sábado para funerales, bodas, etc., o cuando un sacerdote aquí o en un pastorado vecino no está disponible debido a enfermedad, vacaciones, etc.

En segundo lugar, tenemos que considerar el uso del espacio. Actualmente, nuestro espacio está subutilizado. Dado que la asistencia a Misa en las dos Misas de los sábados es notablemente baja, tiene sentido reducir el número a uno.

Tercero, debemos considerar la calidad de nuestras liturgias. La participación del pueblo, y el ministerio consecuente de lectores, monaguillos, ujieres (ministros de hospitalidad), ministros de música, etc., es de primordial importancia en nuestra celebración de la Misa. Cuando nuestra participación se ve disminuida por el reducido número de personas o la falta de ministros litúrgicos presentes en la Misa, tenemos que considerar un cambio que posibilite una mejor participación.

Incluso antes de que la diócesis nos indicara que hiciéramos este cambio, los sacerdotes y el Equipo de Liderazgo Pastoral lo estaban discutiendo seriamente, y probablemente eventualmente se habría tomado esta decisión incluso sin el mandato diocesano, por las razones mencionadas anteriormente.

Si bien eliminar una Misa del horario puede verse como algo negativo, hay un aspecto positivo. Aunque el cambio es una respuesta a un problema, brinda una oportunidad. Las liturgias más vibrantes pueden ser un canal para una fe más profunda para sus participantes y una mayor experiencia de comunidad cristiana en el pastorado.

Gracias de antemano por su paciencia con este proceso. Sigamos orando unos por otros.

En Cristo,

Fr. Tom Metzger
