OFF THE TOP OF MY HEAD...

In 2022, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops launched a three-year initiative entitled the National Eucharistic Revival, whose goal is to restore understanding and devotion to the Eucharist by helping Catholics to renew our worship of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

It's hard to give this important initiative the attention it deserves, because there are so many other "top priorities" competing for our attention, many of which have not been of our choosing. This at least partly explains the scarcity of specific "Eucharistic Revival" activities in our parishes this year. Fr. Matthew will soon be presenting an excellent series on Old Testament connections with the Eucharist, and I hope to follow that with something next year. (But "something" is as specific as I've gotten in my planning!)

Meanwhile, I hope to share occasional insights, mostly "stolen" from other people who are much smarter than me. (And that is a very large pool.)

My first stolen insight is from an article in America Magazine by Catholic University theologian Father Kevin Irwin, titled, "Language Matters. The Eucharist is More Than 'The Body of Jesus.'"

I wholeheartedly agree. I sometimes cringe when someone refers to the Eucharist simply as "Jesus." (For example, someone may say, "The priest took Jesus from the Tabernacle.")

Official Catholic teaching, including the official words used in the Mass, NEVER refers to the Eucharist as "Jesus," the "Body of Jesus," or "the Real Presence of Jesus."

Fr. Irwin writes that such a reference "would be too limiting to the historical body and earthly reality of the Word made flesh...the incarnate Son of God...the entirety of the mystery of the totality of Christ: his whole earthly ministry and...his suffering, death, resurrection and ascension... The Eucharist is the real presence of this body of Christ, not Jesus only."

This may not be an issue in the Spanish language. It is common for Hispanic men to be named "Jesus," so Jesus may be, literally, your next-door neighbor. But my impression is that the Son of God is more often referred to as "Jesucristo," or "Jesus Christ." And, of course, my impression may be totally wrong!

Back to English: Perhaps the intention is to describe the Eucharist as a person, not a thing, and that's good! But we would do better to use the language of the Church. The Eucharist is the Body of Christ, not the Body of Jesus.

PENSAMIENTOS DEL PADRE TOM

En 2022, la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de EE. UU. lanzó una iniciativa de tres años titulada Avivamiento Eucarístico Nacional, cuyo objetivo es restaurar la comprensión y la devoción a la Eucaristía, ayudando a los católicos a renovar nuestra adoración a Jesucristo en la Eucaristía.

Es difícil prestarle a esta importante iniciativa la atención que merece, porque hay muchas otras "prioridades principales" que compiten por nuestra atención, muchas de las cuales no han sido de nuestra elección. Esto explica, al menos en parte, la escasez de actividades específicas de "Avivamiento Eucarístico" en nuestras parroquias este año. En un futuro cercano el Padre Matthew dirigirá una excelente serie sobre las conexiones del Antiguo Testamento con la Eucaristía, y espero continuar con algo el próximo año. (¡Pero "algo" es lo más específico que he llegado en mi planificación!)

Mientras tanto, espero compartir ideas ocasionales, en su mayoría "robadas" de otras personas que son mucho más inteligentes que yo. (Y este es un grupo muy grande.)

Mi primera idea robada es de un artículo en la Revista América del teólogo de la Universidad Católica Padre Kevin Irwin, titulado "El lenguaje importa. La Eucaristía es más que 'El Cuerpo de Jesús'".

Estoy totalmente de acuerdo. A veces me estremezco cuando alguien se refiere a la Eucaristía simplemente como "Jesús". (Por ejemplo, alguien puede decir: "El sacerdote sacó a Jesús del Tabernáculo").

La enseñanza católica oficial, incluidas las palabras oficiales utilizadas en la Misa, NUNCA se refiere a la Eucaristía como "Jesús", el "Cuerpo de Jesús" o "la Presencia Real de Jesús".

Padre Irwin escribe que tal referencia "sería demasiado limitante para el cuerpo histórico y la realidad terrenal del Verbo hecho carne... el Hijo de Dios encarnado... la totalidad del misterio de la totalidad de Cristo: todo su ministerio terrenal y... su sufrimiento, muerte, resurrección y ascensión... La Eucaristía es la presencia real de este cuerpo de Cristo, no solo Jesús".

Esto puede no ser un problema en el idioma español. Es común que los hombres hispanos se llamen "Jesús", por lo que Jesús puede ser, literalmente, su vecino de al lado. Pero mi impresión es que al Hijo de Dios se le conoce más a menudo como "Jesucristo". Y, por supuesto, ¡mi impresión puede estar totalmente equivocada!

Volviendo al inglés: Quizás la intención es describir la Eucaristía como una persona, no como una cosa, ¡y eso es bueno! Pero haríamos mejor en usar el lenguaje de la Iglesia. La Eucaristía es el Cuerpo de Cristo, no el Cuerpo de Jesús.
